ENGLISH- THE CRUCIBLE ACT 1

In his stage directions, what are some good and bad points that Miller observes about the Puritans? - correct answer Good: They were loyal to God, their dedication & discipline, willingness to work hard

Bad: Gossiped about each other. They were snobs and superstitious.

Who is Betty and what is wrong with her? - correct answer She's Reverend Parris' daughter & can't move or open her eyes.

When Abigail enters, she is described as a "strikingly beautiful girl... with an endless capacity for dissembling." What does the phrase "endless capacity for dissembling" suggest? - correct answer People never know who she really is. Very convincing in her lies. She figures out a way to get her way.

Why does Rev. Parris become upset at the thought that Betty's illness is a result of unnatural causes? - correct answer She could be involved in witchcraft. If the community thinks she's involved in witchcraft he could lose his job.

What negative aspect of Parris' character does this reveal? - correct answer Stubborn, Self-centered. He's more concerned about his image than his own child.

What innuendo does Rev. Parris make about Abigail's character? - correct answer He questions his niece about whether or not she has a bad reputation in town... is her name "pure"

How does Abigail respond? - correct answer She becomes angry and says Elizabeth Proctor is a liar who is spreading rumors about her.

How does Goody Putnam move the plot along? "Goody is a term of address much like our "Mrs." it is short for goodwife." - correct answer She makes extreme accusations about the girls and hints that there are witches in Salem.

What do we learn from the conversation that Mercy, Abigail, and Mary Warren have while alone? - correct answer Abigail drank blood to curse/kill Elizabeth Proctor. Mercy danced naked. The girls conjured spirits with Tituba.
