

Chapter 12: Media, Race & Ethnicity

Answers

1. a) To what extent do representations of ethnic minorities continue to be restricted in contemporary media?

2. In recent years there has been a slight increase in diversity and representation in the media, however ethnic minorities continue to be underrepresented and misrepresented in contemporary media. The misrepresentation of minorities can be linked to the lack of diversity behind the scenes. For example, movies such as Slumdog millionaire, Life of Pie and Twelve years a slave, have won Oscars, yet were all produced and assisted by non-ethnic minorities. Also, these movies were not as popular within those minority communities that were being portrayed in those movies.

On the other hand, movies such as Crazy Rich Asians and Black Panther, had people of color not only in the movies, but behind the scenes as well. In addition to incredible box office numbers, the movies were much loved within ethnic minority communities.

b) Choose an example of a media text (e.g. a video game, film, news article, television programme or music video) and analyse the ways in which different ethnic or racial groups are represented in its content. Does the text reinforce or challenge stereotypes?

In Modern Family, Sofia Vergara plays the role of Gloria Pritchett, an Latina women that comes from a unnamed village from Colombia, that is the number one murder capital [CITATION Mor28 V 1043].

Mora(2018), argues that by being married to a rich white man and therefore not having any 'problems', having a criminal background and being loud, the character of Gloria reinforces the Latino stereotypes(136). Yet, Sofia Vergara claims that there is nothing wrong with playing a stereotypes, as she knows plenty of Latina women that are loud and love their families[CITATION Dwa17 V 1043]. Also, the show does portray her as a loving mother, wife and eventually a business woman, which in a way challenges the stereotype.

3. a) As approaches to the development of more 'positive' representations, what is the difference between Shaft and The Cosby Show? Which approach is preferable do you think?

The movie Shaft may have been ground-breaking for its time, however, looking at the movie now, it may seem as it perpetuates the stereotype of black man being aggressive. The movie replaced one stereotype with another [CITATION Hod17 V 1043]. On the other hand, the Cosby Show was a revolutionary show, as it redefined 'the Black family', since it was about an upper- class African American family [CITATION Rob09 V 1043]. The approach taken by the Cosby show is more preferable, as it shows African Americans in a positive light, while challenging stereotypes and normalized such characters in the mainstream media.

b) What is meant by the 'burden of representation' and how does
