

UNISA RULES FOR STUDENTS

Introduction

The content of this section is defined by the legislation and regulations set out in the Higher Education Act, 1997 (as amended). Where provision is made for institutional discretion, the Unisa rules are subject to approval by Council and/or Senate (as appropriate), except where expressly recorded to the contrary. These rules represent the general rules of the university and apply to all Unisa students. These rules must be read together with the applicable Unisa policies, which have the same force and effect as these rules. The relevant policies are available on the Unisa website. The rules as published and related policies may be amended prior to the commencement of the following academic year.

In addition to these general rules, there may be additional specific rules per college and qualification. These rules will be expressly stated in the information pertaining to the college and qualification or in the relevant tutorial letters, all of which are available online to registered students. Where the rules of a college make provision for special requirements regarding registration for a module offered in the college, the requirements will apply equally where the module is taken in another college or for non-degree purposes, unless expressly stated to the contrary.

Master's and doctoral students are referred to the Procedures for master's and doctoral degrees, which relate to processes and procedures for the research proposal and research components, that is, the mini-dissertation, dissertation and thesis.

When a student registers with Unisa, the student:

- a) acknowledges an awareness of the prevalent rules of the university; and
- b) undertakes to be bound and abide by the rules of the institution.

The student bears the onus of ensuring that he or she is familiar with the rules pertinent to his or her registration with Unisa. Ignorance of these rules and related institutional policies will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression.

Official communication from the university is sent via e-mail to a student's myLife e-mail account. The rules for the use of the myLife e-mail account are as follows:

- a) The university provides all registered students with a free myLife e-mail address. It is the student's responsibility to activate their myLife e-mail account as soon as their registration is finalised.
- b) The myLife e-mail account will be the only e-mail account recognised by Unisa for official correspondence to and from the university and will remain the official primary e-mail address on record at Unisa.
- c) All official communication from the university will be sent to the myLife account. Other additional communication channels may be used from time-to-time, but the university will communicate with students primarily via their myLife e-mail addresses.
- d) The management of this e-mail account remains the responsibility of the student.

Operating hours

08:00 to 16:00, Mondays to Fridays, excluding public holidays. The university is closed for the recess period between Christmas and New Year.

1 Language of tuition

The university provides tuition in English. However, as approved by Senate, specific modules in qualifications comprising the learning of a language, tuition may be offered only in the language of the module that is being taught.
