It builds the reputation and necessary goodwill which results in repeat business and also introduction of new customers by the satisfied customers. Thus, for long term interests of a company, it is essential to check consumer interest.

3. Ethics and moral values nowadays play an important part in business growth. A business that protects the consumer interests will be seen as an ethical company which will earn the business goodwill and trust from government and consumer alike.
4. Business growth is achieved by selling of goods and services to the people in society, so a business should keep interests of consumers and ensure that they are satisfied.
5. Any business organisation that is involved in unfair business practices will attract the ire of consumers as well as government. It will ruin the business name. Therefore, it is better to take consumer interest on priority.

The following are the rights of the consumer as per the Consumer Protection Act:

1. Right to Safety: Each and every consumer has the right for safeguarding themselves against any goods or service that are hazardous to the health, property and life.
