Chapter 13 Domestic Violence:

Responding to Domestic Violence Eve S. Buzawa, Carl G. Buzawa, Evan D. Stark, 2015-10-01 This new edition of the bestselling Responding to Domestic Violence explores the response to domestic violence today not only by the criminal justice system but also by public and non profit social service and health care agencies After providing a brief theoretical overview of the causes of domestic violence and its prevalence in our society the authors cover such key topics as barriers to intervention variations in arrest practices the role of state and federal legislation and case prosecution Focusing on both victims and offenders the book includes unique chapters on models for judicial intervention domestic violence and health and children and domestic violence In addition this edition provides an in depth discussion of the concept of coercive control in domestic violence and its importance in understanding victim needs Finally this volume includes international perspectives in order to broaden the reader's understanding of alternative responses to the problem of domestic violence Domestic Violence at the Margins Natalie J. Sokoloff, Christina Pratt, 2005 Reprints of the most influential recent work in the field as well as more than a dozen newly commissioned essays explore theoretical issues current research service provision and activism among Latinos African Americans Asian Americans Jewish Americans and lesbians The volume rejects simplistic analyses of the role of culture in domestic violence by elucidating the support systems available to battered women within different cultures while at the same time addressing the distinct problems generated by that culture Together the essays pose a compelling challenge to stereotypical images of battered women that are racist homophobic and xenophobic

Victimology Lorraine Wolhuter, Neil Olley, David Denham, 2008-07-11 How should the needs of victims of crime be met by the criminal justice system Have the rights of victims been neglected in order to ensure that a defendant is brought to justice Who are the victims of crime and why are they targeted This new book examines the theoretical arguments concerning victimization before examining who victims actually are and the measures taken by the criminal justice system to enhance their position Particular attention is paid to the victimization of women LGBT persons minority ethnic persons and the elderly The book engages in a detailed exposition of the law's response to such victimization focusing on the measures adopted in international human rights law by the Council of Europe and in English law and policy It also assesses alternative models of victim participation in criminal proceedings in European jurisdictions such as Germany Sweden and the Netherlands Adopting an interdisciplinary approach which encompasses law criminology and social policy the book is ideal for undergraduates taking an option in victimology race and crime or gender and crime whatever their disciplinary background
