Calculating Credibility Daryl G. Press, 2007 Daryl G Press uses historical evidence to answer two crucial questions When a country backs down in a crisis does its credibility suffer How do leaders assess their adversaries credibility Press illuminates the decision making processes behind events such as the crises in Europe that preceded World War II the superpower showdowns over Berlin in the 1950s and 60s and the Cuban Missile Crisis Page 4 of cover

The Politics and Economics of Appeasement Gustav Schmidt, 1986 Self-Determination, Statehood, and the Law of Negotiation Robert P. Barnidge, Jr., 2016-01-28 From the Madrid Invitation in 1991 to the introduction of the Oslo process in 1993 to the present a negotiated settlement has remained the dominant leitmotiv of peacemaking between Israel and the Palestinian people That the parties have chosen negotiations means that either side s failure to comply with its obligation to negotiate can result in an internationally wrongful act and in response countermeasures and other responses This monograph seeks to advance our understanding of the international law of negotiation and use this as a framework for assessing the Israeli Palestinian dispute with the Palestinian people s unsuccessful attempt to join the United Nations as a Member State in autumn 2011 and the successful attempt to join the same institution as a non Member Observer State in November 2012 providing a case study for this The legal consequences of these applications are not merely of historical interest they inform the present rights and obligations of Israel and the Palestinian people This work fills a significant gap in the existing international law scholarship on the Israeli Palestinian dispute which neither engages with this means of dispute settlement generally nor does so specifically within the context of the Palestinian people s engagements with international institutions Based on primary research this book explores materials that were not analyzed before It treats a highly political issue with scientific objectivity that strikes a balance between various points of view The book will be an essential reading to all those involved in peace studies international negotiations and Israeli Palestinian conflict Mutaz M Qafisheh Associate Professor of International Law Hebron University A compelling and innovative account of the legal aspects of the Palestinian Israeli conflict a must read Efraim Karsh King s College London and Bar Ilan University author of Palestine Betrayed A superbly imagined and executed study on Palestine that puts the negotiation imperative at the heart of its narrative fully interrogating the involvement of public international law at each step of the long and layered history that is vigorously brought to life in these pages A study that also promises texture nuance and depth to the legal analysis it offers and it delivers handsomely on each of these fronts Dino Kritsiotis Chair of Public International Law Head of the International Humanitarian Law Unit University of Nottingham

Prevent World War III. , 1950 Prologue to Appeasement Elizabeth Ripley Moore Cameron, 1942 From Peoples Into Nations John Connelly, 2022-01-25 This book is a history of East Central Europe since the late eighteenth century the region of Europe between German central Europe and Russia in the East Connelly argues the region for which it is frequently hard to define exact boundaries and which is sometimes treated country by country in a way seemingly separate from the broader trends of European history was one of shared experience despite most of the peoples being divided by linguistic geographic and political barriers Beginning in the 1780s an unwitting Habsburg monarch Joseph II decreed that his subjects would use only German as he hoped to mold a common nationality using German over the disparate subjects Instead he unleashed the energies and struggle for the emergence of new nations that pitted small peoples armed with an idea against empires The author argues that the underlying national self assertion which emerged under imperial rule in the eighteen and nineteenth centuries shows deep connections to subsequent histories to the creation of nation states of the regions after World War I the failure of democratic rule in these states during the interwar years the submersion of the region under Nazi then Soviet rule after 1939 and to the reinvention of sovereign states and then the break up of two of them after 1989 The book interconnects major themes and country histories for first time chronicling this diverse region over many generations from the time of Joseph through democratic and socialist revolutions genocide and Stalinism through civil society movements struggling for liberal democracy into our own day when illiberal politicians come to power by exploiting very old fears

Putin's Wars Marcel H. Van Herpen, 2024-01-03 The third edition of this acclaimed book offers a systematic analysis of Putin's three wars placing the Second Chechen War the war with Georgia of 2008 and the current war with Ukraine in their broader historical context Drawing on extensive original Russian sources Marcel H Van Herpen analyzes in detail how Putin's wars have been prepared and conducted and why they have led to allegations of war crimes and genocide He shows how the conflicts have attempted to consolidate and legitimate Putin's regime and explores how they are connected to a fourth hidden internal war waged by the Kremlin against the opposition The author convincingly argues that the Kremlin relying on the secret services the Orthodox Church the Kremlin youth Nashi and the rehabilitated Cossacks is preparing for an imperial revival most recently in the form of a Eurasian Union An essential book for understanding the dynamics of Putin's regime this study digs deep into the Kremlin's secret long term strategies Readable and clearly argued it makes a compelling case that Putin's regime emulates an established Russian paradigm in which empire building and despotic rule are mutually reinforcing As the first comprehensive exploration of the historical antecedents and political continuity of the Kremlin's contemporary policies Van Herpen's work will make a valuable contribution to the literature on post Soviet Russia and his arguments will stimulate a fascinating and vigorous debate

Dilemmas of Appeasement Gaines Post, 1993 This distinguished book offers fresh perspectives on British appeasement grand strategy and policymaking in a crucial and much debated period of history Innovative in both his interpretation and his method Gaines Post Jr reexamines how British leaders planned foreign policy and imperial defense as they faced the increasing likelihood of war with the dictatorial regimes of Germany Italy and Japan He clarifies the ways in which the dynamics of the machinery of government affected the choice of policies delimited the management of crises and restricted the pace of rearmament Post provides a novel and intricate synthesis of what we know about British foreign policy in the 1930s rearmament deterrence decisionmaking and the question of timing Analyzing the Ethiopian and Rhineland crises as case studies he shows how they defeated British efforts to develop a comprehensive strategy of conventional and extended deterrence London s unsuccessful attempts to deter Hitler and Mussolini he demonstrates were frustrated by confusion in the decisionmaking machinery of government by conflicting notions of how to buy time by unpredictable international crises and by the plans of Neville Chamberlain for correlating airpower economic stability at home and conciliation overseas Challenging the generally accepted interpretation of British grand strategy in the 1930s Dilemmas of Appeasement will be important reading for historians especially of modern Britain and Europe political scientists and defense studies specialists Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1939 The

Cliveden Set Norman Rose,2000 The Cliveden Set had its roots in South Africa immediately after the Boer War Back in England its members formed a self appointed pressure group They would often meet at Cliveden or 4 St James s Square in London the homes of the American born multi millionaire Waldorf 2nd Viscount Astor and his wife Nancy by birth a Virginian belle and the first woman M P to take her seat in the House of Commons Suddenly in the late 1930s the Set was catapulted into unlooked for notoriety when Communist journalist Claud Cockburn identified it as a cabal that sought to manipulate and even determine British foreign policy including a conspiracy to procure a humiliating dishonourable settlement with Nazi Germany The Washington Post asserted that the Set constituted the real centre of British foreign policy menacing and challenging the constitutional structures of British democracy This fascinating book is the first full length account of the Set and its influence People of Today ,2002 Tradition, Treaties, and Trade Kirk W. Larsen,2008 Relations between the Choson and Qing states are often cited as the prime example of the operation of the eoetraditional e Chinese eoetribute system e In contrast this work contends that the motivations tactics and successes and failures of the late Qing Empire in Choson Korea mirrored those of other nineteenth century imperialists Between 1850 and 1910 the Qing attempted to defend its informal empire in Korea by intervening directly not only to preserve its geopolitical position but also to promote its commercial interests And it utilized the technology of empire etreaties international law the telegraph steamships and gunboats Although the transformation of Qing Choson diplomacy was based on modern imperialism this work argues that it is more accurate to describe the dramatic shift in relations in terms of flexible adaptation by one of the world e tm s major empires in response to new challenges Moreover the new modes of Qing imperialism were a hybrid of East Asian and Western mechanisms and institutions Through these means the Qing Empire played a fundamental role in Korea e tm s integration into regional and global political and economic systems Public Affairs Information Service Bulletin ,1938
