Uncommonly Good Ideas—Teaching Writing in the Common Core Era Sandra Murphy, Mary Ann Smith, 2014-04-15 This innovative resource provides teachers with a road map for designing a comprehensive writing curriculum that meets Common Core standards The authors zero in on several big ideas that lead to and support effective practices in writing instruction such as integrating reading writing speaking and listening teaching writing as a process extending the range of students writing spiraling and scaffolding a writing curriculum and collaborating These big ideas are the cornerstones of best researched based practices as well as the CCSS for writing The first chapter offers a complete lesson designed around teaching narrative writing and illustrating tried and true practices for teaching writing as a process The remaining chapters explore a broad range of teaching approaches that help students tackle different kinds of narrative informational and argumentative writing and understand complexities like audience and purpose Each chapter focuses on at least one of the uncommonly good ideas and illustrates how to create curricula around it Uncommonly Good Ideas includes model lessons and assignments mentor texts teaching strategies student writing and practical guidance for moving the ideas from the page into the classroom An uncommonly good book about uncommonly good ideas about teaching writing in the era of the Common Core and beyond In this slender volume two master teachers Sandra Murphy and Mary Ann Smith share the knowledge accumulated during their lifetimes of teaching writing and exploring the broader world of related theory and research They confront the hard problems all teachers will face but do so with an evident joy in their chosen profession The book is slender readable and well worth the ride whether you are a novice terrified as you stare into your first classroom or an old hand looking for an extra boost with a new class and a new year Arthur Applebee Distinguished Professor and chair Department of Educational Theory and Practice University at Albany Throughout this book I find the intelligence and insights that help me think about what it looks like to teach writing through the Common Core State Standards while maintaining my own integrity as a teacher This book is a master class that you can take throughout the year reading today about what you need to learn to do better tomorrow Jim Burke best selling author and high school teacher

Common Core CPR ReLeah Cossett Lent, Barry Gilmore, 2013-09-27 The ideal Newly minted high school graduates all across the nation each one a complex text genius a writer and analytic thinker beyond compare All on to glorious colleges and careers thanks to the Common Core The reality The 1 3 million students who fail to graduate from high school each year and the hundreds of thousands more who either gave up or lost interest long ago The reality is why Common Core CPR is needed Urgently Because if we continue to insist that all students meet expectations that are well beyond their abilities and mindsets these kids will only decline faster We must be brave enough and trained enough to cast aside what we know harms students and apply with renewed vigor the teaching methods we know work Releah Lent and Barry Gilmore rise to the challenge and there are no two authors better equipped to do so They embrace what is best about the standards their emphasis on active authentic learning and then explicitly show teachers how to connect these ideal outcomes to practical classroom strategies detailing the day to day teaching that can coax reluctant learners into engagement and achievement You ll learn how to Consider choice and relevance in every assignment Plan and spot opportunities for success Scaffold students comprehension of complex fiction and nonfiction texts Model close reading through thoughtful questioning Teach students to use evidence in reading writing speaking and reflection And so much more It s not the big sweeping formulas for achievement that will win the day it s the incremental growth that teachers need to make happen that one book that one writing assignment to help a student turn a corner If we can get that one transformational moment to occur and follow it up by designing more opportunities for success that s the ideal say Lent and Gilmore
