Common Core Unit For Seedfolks:

Legacies of Christian Language and Literacies in American Education Mary M. Juzwik, Jennifer C. Stone, Kevin J. Burke, Denise Dávila, 2019-10-23 Because spiritual life and religious participation are widespread human and cultural phenomena these experiences unsurprisingly find their way into English language arts curriculum learning teaching and teacher education work Yet many public school literacy teachers and secondary teacher educators feel unsure how to engage religious and spiritual topics and responses in their classrooms This volume responds to this challenge with an in depth exploration of diverse experiences and perspectives on Christianity within American education Authors not only examine how Christianity the historically dominant religion in American society shapes languaging and literacies in schooling and other educational spaces but they also imagine how these relations might be reconfigured From curricula to classroom practice from narratives of teacher education to youth coming to faith chapters vivify how spiritual lives beliefs practices communities and religious traditions interact with linguistic and literate practices and pedagogies In relating legacies of Christian languaging and literacies to urgent issues including White supremacy sexism and homophobia and the politics of exclusion the volume enacts and invites inclusive relational configurations within and across the myriad American Christian sub cultures coming to bear on English language arts curriculum teaching and learning This courageous collection contributes to an emerging scholarly literature at the intersection of language and literacy teaching and learning religious literacy curriculum studies teacher education and youth studies It will speak to teacher educators scholars secondary school teachers and graduate and postgraduate students among others
