

TikTok's Community Guidelines

Youth Safety and Well-Being

We're committed to providing young people with an experience that is developmentally appropriate and helps to ensure a safe space for self-exploration.

Integrity and Authenticity

We want everyone to feel confident that they can access information that is reliable, discover content that is original, and engage with people who are authentic.

Safety and Civility

Physical and psychological safety form the foundation of individual well-being, and civility is the key to a thriving community.

Regulated Goods and Commercial Activities

We want everyone on TikTok to have access to information that can support them in making informed choices about their personal health and finances.

Mental and Behavioral Health

We care deeply about the well-being of our community members and want to be a source of happiness, enrichment, and belonging.

Privacy and Security

Protecting our community's privacy rights and personal information by keeping our platform secure is critical to maintaining their trust and ensuring their safety.

Sensitive and Mature Themes

TikTok provides content that ranges from very family friendly to more mature. Our approach to potentially sensitive and more mature content takes into account developmental and cultural considerations.
