THE REACTION

Supporters exulting in "human rights," "power"

By Thomas Peate and Mark Emmos

SAN FRANCISCO — Gilbert Baker stood in Harvey Milk Plaza in the Castro District, dressed all in white with a rainbow-colored sash draped across his torso. And the man who designed the iconic Pride flag nearly four decades ago described how he wept with joy upon learning early Friday morning that a landmark Supreme Court ruling had made same-sex marriage the law of the land.

"It means we have status as people, we are a global tribe and we have power," said Baker, 68. "We have human rights."

Baker was part of the euphoria that erupted throughout the Bay Area and around the country after the high court's 5-4 decision made clear that same-sex marriage is now legal in every state — plus marriage, which he knows as something else throughout all 50 states — just marriage.

Hodges case and state legislatures.

While the ruling progresses the status quo in California, where tens of thousands of same-sex couples already have wed since the high court struck down the Golden State's gay marriage ban two years ago, the court majority recognized the right of gay couples to marry in states where they

Stadium plan called 'worst by far'

By Matthew Attz

OAKLAND — The long-awaited plan for a new Raiders stadium is a costly detour for the team and will make a potential return to Las Vegas less attractive, stadium builders say.

Some experts said after being briefed on the proposal, which was unveiled by the newspaper.

The plan, submitted to Oakland and Alameda County leaders Monday by San Diego-based businessman Floyd Kephart, includes a provision that the Raiders sell 20 percent of the club to Kephart's New City Development, LLC for $200 million. That transaction would be a bargain for Kephart's firm, but it's hardly the only red flag for the Raiders, said
