You've Heard This Before Peter Turchi, 2023-01-24 In Don't Stop Me If You've Heard This Before, Peter Turchi combines personal narrative and close reading of a wide range of stories and novels to reveal how writers create the fiction that matters to us. Building on his much-loved Maps of the Imagination: The Writer as Cartographer, Turchi leads readers and writers to an understanding of how the intricate mechanics of storytelling, including shifts in characters' authority, the subtle manipulation of images, careful attention to point of view, the strategic release of information, and even digressing from the apparent story, can create powerful effects. Using examples from Dickens, Chekhov, and Salinger, and Twain to more contemporary writers including Toni Morrison, Alice Munro, E. L. Doctorow, Jenny Erpenbeck, Adam Johnson, Mohsin Hamid, Jai Chakrabarti, Yoko Ogawa, Richard Powers, Deborah Eisenberg, Olga Tokarczuk, Rachel Cusk, and Colson Whitehead, Turchi offers illuminating insights into the inner workings of fiction, as well as practical advice for writers looking to explore their craft from a fresh angle, beyond the fundamentals of character and setting, plot, and scene. While these essays draw from decades of teaching undergraduate and graduate students they also speak to writers working on their own In Out of the Workshop into the Laboratory Turchi discusses how anyone can make the most of discussions of stories or novels in progress and in Reading Like a Writer he provides guidelines for learning from writing you admire Perhaps best of all these essays by a writer the Houston Chronicle has called one of the country's foremost thinkers on the art of writing are as entertaining as they are edifying always reminding us of the power and pleasure of storytelling The Book of Lost Light Ron Nyren,2021-05-12 Joseph Kylander's childhood in early 20th century San Francisco has been shaped by his widowed father's obsessive photographic project and by his headstrong cousin Karelia's fanciful storytelling and impulsive acts The 1906 earthquake upends their eccentric routines and they take refuge with a capricious patron and a group of artists looking to find meaning after the disaster THE BOOK OF LOST LIGHT explores family loyalty and betrayal Finnish folklore the nature of time and theater and what it takes to recover from calamity and build a new life from the ashes A Kite in the Wind Andrea Barrett,Peter Turchi,2011-03-01 A Kite in the Wind is an anthology of essays by 20 veteran writers and master teachers While the contributors offer specific practical advice on such fundamental aspects of craft as characterization character names the first person point of view and unreliable narrators they also give extended thoughtful consideration to more sophisticated topics including imminence or the power of a sense of beginning creating and maintaining tension lushness and the deliberate manipulation of information to create particular effects The essays in A Kite in the Wind begin as personal investigations attempts to understand why a decision in a particular story or novel seemed unsuccessful to define a quality or problem that seemed either unrecognized or unsatisfactorily defined to understand what despite years of experience as a fiction writer resisted comprehension and to pursue haunting even unanswerable questions Unlike a how to book the anthology is less an instruction manual than it is an intimate visit with twenty very different writers as they explore topics that excite intrigue and even puzzle them Each discussion uses specific examples and illustrations including both canonical stories and novels and writing less frequently discussed from the 19th 20th and 21st centuries by both American and international authors The contributors share their hard earned insights for beginning and advanced writers with humility wit and compassion The first section of the book focuses on narration with particular attention paid to various kinds of narrators the second on strategic creation and presentation of character the third on some of the roles of the visual beginning with establishing setting and the fourth on structural and organizational issues from movement through time to the manipulation of information to create mystery and suspense The Believer Book of Writers Talking to Writers Vendela Vida,2005 A fascinating compendium of conversations between writers The Believer Book of Writers Talking to Writers includes dialogues between Zadi Smith and Ian McEwan Jonathan Lethem and Paul Auster Dave Eggers and David Foster Wallace and many others Book Review Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation The Believer ,2006 The Writers Directory 2008 Michelle Kazensky,2007-06 Features bibliographical biographical and contact information

Hungry Ghost Theater Sarah Stone,2018 An inventive funny sometimes heart breaking exploration of the connections between art and hunger duty and desire and loss and survival Brother and sister Robert and Julia Zamarin are trying to awaken the world to its peril with their tiny political theater company while their sister Eva a neuroscientist searches for the biological roots of empathy As Julia attempts to break free of Robert s influence Robert as lost without her as she is without him takes on dark material and drives away members of their company Meanwhile the whole family contends with the ongoing troubles of Eva s youngest daughter Arielle as she struggles with addiction Finally after a family catastrophe Julia and Robert reunite to create a new piece in a possibly haunted theater institute When Arielle shows up after her latest relapse they all have to find a new way of living in and with a world out of balance The adventures of the eccentric memorable Zamarin family take the reader from San Francisco to Seoul from theater spaces to psychiatric hospitals from Zanzibar to the Santa Cruz Mountains and into and through a series of Sumerian and Tibetan hells This imaginative provocative novel is a contemporary Inferno for fans of Margaret Atwood Ruth Ozeki and Lydia Millet Sarah Stone traces out the quirky fateful dramas of one family while having the visionary originality to take the longest possible view of human action I found this an unforgettable book astute vivid and stubbornly ambitious in its scope Joan Silber With her laser intelligence and gorgeous prose style Sarah Stone has written a thrilling hybrid of a novel about the intricacies of family life and the inevitable handing down from one generation to the next of our deepest passions and pathologies Set around the world and in the next one this book is both marvelously inventive and deeply humane I loved it Ann Packer The Craft of Novel-writing Dianne Doubtfire,1981 Writing from Deeper Within Bernard Selling,2012-02-07 Works of art cause us to contemplate our human condition with unending fascination They take us into another dimension a dimension in which our understanding of the world we live in becomes richer and our appreciation even awe of the power of a human hand to craft

such a work grows In this way the works of Leonardo Ibsen and Mozart enrich our understanding of the world in which we function The techniques required to create works of art are neither difficult to grasp nor difficult to use They simply take time thoughtfulness and a willingness to experiment rewrite to see which are most useful Bernard Selling guides people through the writing process explaining what makes writing great one step at a time Selling has taught writing courses for over thirty years and the 25th Anniversary Edition of his seminal guide to life story writing Writing from Within will be published by Hunter House in April 2012 Writing from Deeper Within a special eBook only sequel contains Selling s refined and expanded curriculum The sequel includes a summary of Selling s Writing from Within method which teaches people to learn how to write by using the subject they know best themselves Then with techniques that will help people create more complete powerful and universal stories Selling shows how people can expand their work into full length plays memoirs screenplays or novels Essentially Selling teaches that all great stories no matter the genre or form have well developed fascinating main characters and intriguing plots All characters need goals that they pursue the greater the obstacles in the way of that goal the more interesting the stories become The difference between shorter works and longer works is that shorter works usually only have one obstacle for each goal and longer works have smaller goals and obstacles within the main plot The goals and obstacles push the story forward while minor characters and well crafted backstories contribute to the audience s understanding of what has happened before the curtain comes up and is essential to most narratives To help writers Selling provides draft samples each step of the way to show how his advice improves every piece of writing He describes Story pacing techniques Strategies for subtly adding exposition and denouement Revealing and unraveling character Writing stories within stories Developing unique voices within the same story Researching and writing family histories Advanced steps like creating visual motifs employing sub text and separating the writer from the central character He also includes a full chapter of his students finished work to show the potential of his method All of the techniques that Selling presents are just as relevant to the non fiction writer as to the fiction writer and all writers new and old will write with more skill understand themselves and their characters better and be able to turn their writing into art
