Officer Defensive Tactics Curriculum Wollack & Associates, Michigan. Law Enforcement Officers Training Council, 1981 This report summarizes the meetings and workshops at which an examination was evolved to test proficiency of trainees in police defensive tactics The examination accompanies a standardized training manual in these techniques which are to be used statewide The initial brainstorming session discussed the types of events to be included in a statewide defensive tactics examination the criteria for evaluating performance the use of assessment teams the degree of resistance to be employed in the test and the possible use of a wrestling scenario as a criterion measure Subsequent meetings reviewed the tactics and techniques previously agreed upon and settled details of test administration The latter included questions of how many techniques a student should exhibit mastery in retesting procedures and selection of the assessment team One workshop had a hands on portion where defense instructors performed the techniques called for in the draft examination Two pilot tests of the draft examination were conducted at two State police academies with trainees who had received defensive tactics instruction These sought to determine the degree of concordance among raters and the adequacy of the administrative process in the testing model as well as student opinions of the procedure The completed set of materials consists of a student manual with sequential photographs and narrative descriptions a narrated videotape that depicts the techniques and a manual that describes the procedures for administering the examination The latter is appended to this report and discusses the project history facilities for defensive tactics instruction methods of instruction and procedures for final testing In its appendix are a pairing model of defensive tactics final examination a model for testing flow and the final practical examination format and assessor scoring sheet Lists of planning workshop participants are included Charts are also given Defensive Tactics Manual Robert S. Allemier, Michigan. Law Enforcement Officers Training Council, Michigan. Department of State Police, 1977 The dramatic increase in the popularity and practice of the martial arts and their use against law enforcement personnel has given rise to a new and disturbing problem between police and certain segments of the public Therefore the Michigan Law Enforcement Officers Training Council has developed an advanced police training course to provide participating police officers with functional and operational knowledge of karate kung fu and the other martial arts The course covers these techniques warning signs that will assist the officer in identifying individuals skilled in the martial arts and information as to what the officer should be prepared for in confrontation situations with these individuals The five day 40 hour training course curriculum reviews the use and potential of the human body stances targets and techniques and offensive and defensive techniques for use against armed and unarmed opponents Other defensive tactics outlined and illustrated include baton techniques for use against armed and unarmed opponents and last resort techniques This instructor s manual lists course training objectives provides a class outline and schedule and presents procedures for conducting the actual program and evaluating and grading students Law and Order Training for Civil Defense Emergency Michigan State University.
