Who Is an African? Roderick R. Hewitt,Chammah J. Kaunda,2018-09-15 The subject of race and identity is a burning issue which continues to occupy the attention not only of South Africans but also the wider residents of the continent of Africa and those who are Africans in the Diaspora The outburst of xenophobic attacks against foreigners mostly of Black African origins in some communities of Kwa Zulu Natal and areas of Johannesburg during 2008 and 2015 has raised questions about the social cohesion of South African society linked to unresolved structural identity issues bequeathed by the nation s past colonial and apartheid legacy This publication argues that there is an embedded schizophrenic identity crisis within the society that requires scholarly interrogation The chapters assemble scholarly voices from different ethnic groups that examine the central research question of this study Who is an African Within the wider Southern African context identity and ethnicity politics are framing nationalist economic policies and are impacting on social cohesion within many countries Writing from different social and racial locations the authors have critically engaged with the central question and offer some important insights that can serve as a resource for all nations grappling with issues of race ethnicity identity constructed politics and social cohesion

Livable Cities from a Global Perspective Roger Caves,Fritz Wagner,2018-05-11 Livable Cities from a Global Perspective offers case studies from around the world on how cities approach livability They address the fundamental question what is considered livable The journey each city has taken or is currently taking is unique and context specific There is no such thing as a one size fits all approach to livability Some cities have had a long history of developing livability policies and programs that focus on equity economic and environmental concerns while other cities are relatively new to the game In some areas government has taken the lead while in other areas grassroots activism has been the impetus for livability policies and programs The challenge facing our cities is not simply developing a livability program We must continually monitor and readjust policies and programs to meet the livability needs of all people The case studies investigate livability issues in such cities as Austin Texas Helsinki Finland London United Kingdom Warsaw Poland Tehran Iran Salt Lake City United States Rio de Janeiro Brazil Sydney Australia and Cape Town South Africa The chapters are organized into such themes as livability in capital city regions livability and growth and development livability and equity concerns livability and metrics and creating livability Each chapter provides unique insights into how a specific area has responded to calls for livable cities In doing so the book adds to the existing literature in the field of livable cities and provides policy makers and other organizations with information and alternative strategies that have been developed and implemented in an effort to become a livable city
