Losing Legitimacy Clifton W. Sherrill, 2018-09-15 This book contends that the transition of leadership from Ayatollah Ali Khamenei will result in a crisis of legitimacy for the Islamic Republic of Iran Using Max Weber's typology of legitimacy the book explains that the Islamic Republic's legitimacy was based on the charismatic authority of the regime's founder Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini Since Khomeini's death in 1989 the regime has failed to develop the rule of law necessary for legal rational authority Moreover it abandoned the logical underpinnings justifying clerical rule when a mid ranking cleric rather than a Grand Ayatollah was placed in the position of Supreme Leader With neither a legal basis nor a traditional basis of authority the new leader relied extensively on the cover of Khomeini's charismatic shadow for legitimacy After nearly four decades this shadow is fading Not only will Khamenei's successor lack the same direct ties to Khomeini but the demographic and societal changes in Iran have made the charisma of Khomeini a historical concept rather than a viscerally felt experience First the book analyzes the likely succession scenarios finding the most probable outcome is the appointment of a hardline conservative backed by the regime's security forces Next the regime's economic political and social failures are presented in order to explain why the new leader is likely to try to return to a traditional basis of legitimacy religion Thereafter the book explains how this hardliner focus on religion is likely to result in an aggressive Iranian foreign policy toward the United States Israel and Saudi Arabia impacting the region's security

Don't Talk About Politics Sarah Stein Lubrano, 2025-05-15 Democracy is dying because we are clinging to a dangerous and outdated myth talking about politics can change people's minds It doesn't This provocative debut from a bold new voice combines a fascinating range of research to show us the psychological and sociological factors that really shape our politics Drawing from ancient philosophy to modern neuroscience and social science Dr Sarah Stein Lubrano reveals the surprising truth about how people think and behave politically From friendship to community organizing and social infrastructure she explores the actions that actually do change minds In a world where politics keeps getting more irrational dishonest violent and chaotic it's getting much harder to reach people with words alone So people who really care about democracy must ask how can we stop arguing and do the deep work to build stronger foundations for political life and a better world for us all
