The 758th Tank Battalion in World War II Joe Wilson, Jr.,2018-04-24 In 1941 the U S Army activated the 758th Tank Battalion the first all black armored unit By December 1944 they were fighting the Axis in Northern Italy from the Ligurian Sea through the Po Valley and into the Apennine Mountains where they helped breach the Gothic Line the Germans last major defensive line of the Italian Campaign After the war the 758th was deactivated but was reformed as the 64th Tank Battalion keeping their distinguished insignia a tusked elephant head over the motto We Pierce They entered the Korean War still segregated but returned fully integrated though discrimination continued internally Through the years they fought with almost every American tank the Stuart the Sherman the Pershing the Patton and today s Abrams Victorious over two fascist and racist regimes many black servicemen returned home to what they hoped would be a more tolerant nation Most were bitterly disappointed segregation was still the law of the land For many disappointment became a determination to fight discrimination with the same resolve that had defeated the Axis Confessions of a Streetwalker David L.

McKenna,2016-05-10 In 2005 my wife Jan and I moved into a condo along the shores of Lake Washington Even though I had served as President of Seattle Pacific University back in the 1970s I was unknown on the streets of the resort like village of Kirkland Washington Each morning Molly our Maltese puppy and I went across the street for her potty break and exercise Soon with Molly as the introducer I discovered a new world where strangers became friends through the connection of our dogs Later after two back surgeries Jan joined us on our daily walk down the street through the village and around the park by using a doggie stroller as a substitute for a walker The sight of the three of us walking down the street with Molly peering forward from her seat at the helm of the stroller became a phenomenon of its own on the streets of Kirkland Together we walked through an open door of learning and found that friendship based upon listening caring and giving is a grace that God reserves for plain people who walk daily and serve joyfully in common places The Art of Fatherhood Noah Charney,Miha
