Postwar America

1. How does each of the authors describe the problems associated with postwar problems?

1. Problems: Millions of returning veterans and millions of youth are finding themselves without jobs.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration and Congress	Congress passed the GI Bill of Rights which guaranteed veterans a year's worth of unemployment benefits while job hunting. It offered low-interest, federally guaranteed loans.

2. Problems: Severe housing shortage

Solutions offered by developers such as William Levitt	Levitt used assembly-line techniques through prefabricated houses, offering homes for small residential communities called suburbs for less than $17,500.
Solutions offered by the Truman and Eisenhower administrations	The Truman and Eisenhower administrations provided financial support for urban renewal and housing, working with the private business.

3. Problems: Severe inflation

Solutions offered by the Truman administration and Congress	Congress passed Truman Administration recommendations which called for the economy growth and price, wage, and rent controls.

4. Problems: Labor unions that threaten to supply the nation.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration	Truman's administration said the nation's workers could be able to refuse to work on the job. He instructed the federal government to union that threat. And President he later issued an executive order, for the very first time (and he said for them).

5. Problems: Discrimination and racial violence

Solutions offered by the Truman administration	The Truman administration issued an anti-discrimination act that said that all federal government, is government and rights, organizations, organizations, organizations, and all federal government employees.

6. Evaluate the significance of leaders L. B. Johnson, and Paul Robeson.

Leaders	The leaders were asked to lead the nation's first (and the only) collection of a severe housing shortage.
