Our Role in Democracy: Civic Duties and Responsibilities

In a democracy, being a citizen isn't just about enjoying rights and freedoms. It also means responsibilities. Civic duties and responsibilities are crucial for maintaining a healthy, functioning society.

Voting is one of the most important duties. By voting in elections, citizens have a say in who represents them in government and how they want their society to be governed. Voting is the foundation of democratic decision-making.

Jury duty is another key responsibility. When citizens serve on juries, they help ensure that the justice system is fair and impartial. They decide whether someone is guilty or not in legal cases, based on evidence presented in court.

Community participation includes various activities like volunteering for local organizations, participating in public meetings, or helping make the community a better place. The more
