Technology in Student Affairs: Supporting Student Learning and Services Kevin Kruger, 2005 The literature and research on the use of technology in student affairs is still very limited This volume of New Direction for Student Services was written to increase our understanding of the role of technology in the student learning experience of campus based and as well as distance learners Information technology has become a central tool in creating 24 7 self service experiences for students interacting with campus administrative functions Recent technologies also create the real possibility of moving beyond administrative functions to playing a central role in student learning community development and student development This volume monograph attempts to capture the current thinking around the use of technology in student affairs It is not a review of the actual technologies in use in student affairs The pace of change is so fast that such a treatment would make the writing out of date within two years In that light this volume focuses less on the technology and more on the ways in which the technology is altering the organization of student affairs the ways in which the lines between campus based students and distance learners are blurring and the increasing role technology is playing in student learning Atlanta ,2004-09 Atlanta magazine s editorial mission is to engage our community through provocative writing authoritative reporting and superlative design that illuminate the people the issues the trends and the events that define our city The magazine informs challenges and entertains our readers each month while helping them make intelligent choices not only about what they do and where they go but what they think about matters of importance to the community and the region Atlanta magazine s editorial mission is to engage our community through provocative writing authoritative reporting and superlative design that illuminate the people the issues the trends and the events that define our city The magazine informs challenges and entertains our readers each month while helping them make intelligent choices not only about what they do and where they go but what they think about matters of importance to the community and the region Atlanta ,2003-12 Atlanta magazine s editorial mission is to engage our community through provocative writing authoritative reporting and superlative design that illuminate the people the issues the trends and the events that define our city The magazine informs challenges and entertains our readers each month while helping them make intelligent choices not only about what they do and where they go but what they think about matters of importance to the community and the region Atlanta magazine s editorial mission is to engage our community through provocative writing authoritative reporting and superlative design that illuminate the people the issues the trends and the events that define our city The magazine informs challenges and entertains our readers each month while helping them make intelligent choices not only about what they do and where they go but what they think about matters of importance to the community and the region Through the Arch Larry B. Dendy, 2013 Through the Arch captures UGA s colorful past dynamic present and promising future in a novel way by surveying its buildings structures and spaces These physical features are the university s most visible and some of its most valuable resources Yet they are largely overlooked or treated only passingly in histories and standard publications about UGA Through text and photographs this book places buildings and spaces in the context of UGA s development over more than 225 years After opening with a brief historical overview of the university the book profiles over 140 buildings landmarks and spaces their history appearance and past and current usage as well as their namesake beginning with the oldest structures on North Campus and progressing to the newest facilities on South and East Campus and the emerging Northwest Quadrant Many profiles are supplemented with sidebars relating traditions lore facts or alumni recollections associated with buildings and spaces More than just landmarks or static elements of infrastructure buildings and spaces embody the university s values cultural heritage and educational purpose These facilities many more than a century old are where students learn explore and grow and where faculty teach research and create They harbor the university s history and traditions protect its treasures and hold memories for alumni The repository for books documents artifacts and tools that contain and convey much of the accumulated knowledge and wisdom of human existence these structures are the legacy of generations And they are tangible symbols of UGA s commitment to improve our world through education Guide includes 113 color photos throughout 19 black and white historical photos Over 140 profiles of buildings landmarks and spaces Supplemental sidebars with traditions lore facts and alumni anecdotes 6 maps
