Group Interventions in Schools Jennifer P. Keperling, Wendy M. Reinke, Dana Marchese, Nicholas Ialongo, 2017-02-21

Numerous group interventions have been shown to be effective for helping K 8 students who are struggling with or at risk for a wide range of mental health and behavior problems This unique book gives school practitioners indispensable tools for making any evidence based group intervention more successful It addresses the real world implementation challenges that many manuals overlook such as how to engage children and parents and sustain their participation manage behavior in groups and troubleshoot crisis situations In a convenient large size format the book includes case examples reflection questions role play scenarios and 31 reproducible forms and handouts the print book has a large size format for easy photocopying Purchasers get access to a Web page where they can download and print the reproducible materials This book is in The Guilford Practical Intervention in the Schools Series edited by Sandra M Chafouleas Creating Sustainable Community Programs Mark R. Daniels, 2001-02-28 Public opinion polls consistently reveal the lack of confidence disillusionment and mistrust that citizens feel toward government Daniels and his contributors believe that the relationship between citizens and their governments can be changed by facilitating greater citizen collaboration with government particularly through local sustainable programs As the case studies show often sustainable community programs are created through grassroots movements that are initiated and managed by citizens themselves bringing them in contact with their local elected and appointed officials Unlike traditional programs that are administered by local officials on behalf of their citizens once sustainable community programs are created citizens administer their own programs in collaboration with local officials The case studies look at a variety of sustainable programs primarily in the United States that help to deal with issues such as recycling transportation microcredit site redevelopment pollution health care and hunger Creating Sustainable Community Programs is the first book on sustainable programs that is intended for an audience of public administration scholars researchers and students as well as practitioners who are searching for ways to change the relationship between citizens and their governments Successful Fundraising William K.
