Intrusive Impartiality Assistant Professor in the Department of Political Science Marion Laurence, 2024-11-29 Impartiality is a central norm in United Nations peace operations that has long been associated with passive monitoring of cease fires and peace agreements In the twenty first century however its meaning has been stretched to allow for a range of forceful intrusive and ideologically prescriptive practices In Intrusive Impartiality Marion Laurence explains how these new ways of being impartial emerge how they spread within and across missions and how they become institutionalized across UN peace operations In doing so Laurence sheds light on controversial changes in peacekeeping practice and provides an innovative framework for studying authority and change in global governance
