American Thresherman ,1915 Threshermen's Review ,1904 Lakeshore Lyrics Shannyn Leah, Avery McAdams has dreamed about the day his band would make it big But he never expected to also fall in love at the same time The problem is Cece Boyd doesn't share his feelings Apparently their one sexual escapade was just a run of the mill romp in the sheets for her Cece sees things differently She thinks Avery is like every other artist just looking for the best way to get to the top She's determined not to let their one night stand get in the way of business What she doesn't expect is to be madly attracted to him While both try their hardest to keep it professional being stuck together in a cramped tour bus only heightens the feelings they have for one another Will they be able to keep hold of their professionalism or will their broken hearts mend together as one The Southern Lumberman ,1909 Threshermen's Review and Power Farming ,1913

Lakeshore Candy Shannyn Leah, Abby McAdams can't sleep She keeps having nightmares about her grandmother Cuddling up beside her friend Riley helps to ease some of her fears Well cuddling and the candy she keeps hidden around his apartment She can't help but feel an attraction to Riley too But they are just friends right Riley has his own past that haunts him As they fight their own desires to be together the past comes back to slap them in the face When they finally give in to their lustful cravings will their love be enough to erase their pasts or will it be just another broken heart for both of them

Killer Stuff and Tons of Money Maureen Stanton,2011-06-09 One dealer's journey from the populist mayhem of flea markets to the rarefied realm of auctions reveals the rich often outrageous subculture of antiques and collectibles Millions of Americans are drawn to antiques and flea market culture whether as participants or as viewers of the perennially popular Antiques Roadshow or the recent hit American Pickers This world has the air of a lottery a 20 purchase might net you four five or six figures Master dealer Curt Avery the unlikely star of Killer Stuff and Tons of Money plays that lottery every day and he wins it more than most Occasionally he gets lucky but more often he draws on a deep knowledge of America's past and the odd fascinating and beautiful objects that have survived it Week in week out Avery trawls the flea and antiques circuit buying selling and advising other dealers in his many areas of expertise from furniture to glass to stoneware and more On the surface he's an improbable candidate for an antiques dealer He wrestled in high school and still retains the pugilistic build he is gruff funny and profane he favors shorts and sneakers even in November and he is remarkably generous toward both competitors and customers who want a break But as he struggles for a spot in a high end Boston show he must step up his game and perhaps more challenging fit in with a white shoe crowd Through his ascent we see the fleaosphere for what it truly is less a lottery than a contact sport with few rules and many pitfalls This rich and sometimes hilarious subculture rewards peculiar interests and outright obsessions one dealer specializes in shrunken heads another wants all the postal memorabilia he can get So Avery must be a guerrilla historian and use his hard earned knowledge of America's past to live by and off his wits Only the smartest survive in one of America's most ruthless meritocracies Killer Stuff and Tons of Money is
