Drama 2014 Grade 12 Final Memorandum:

Intersectional Encounters in the Nineteenth-Century Archive Rachel Bryant Davies, Erin Johnson-Williams, 2022-08-11

Rachel Bryant Davies and Erin Johnson Williams lead a cast of renowned scholars to initiate an interdisciplinary conversation about the mechanisms of power that have shaped the nineteenth century archive to ask What is a nineteenth century archive broadly defined This landmark collection of essays will broach critical and topical questions about how the complex discourses of power involved in constructions of the nineteenth century archive have impacted and continue to impact constructions of knowledge across disciplinary boundaries and beyond academic confines The essays written from a range of disciplinary perspectives grapple with urgent problems of how to deal with potentially sensitive nineteenth century archival items both within academic scholarship and in present day public facing institutions which often reflect erotic colonial and imperial racist sexist violent or elitist ideologies Each contribution grapples with these questions from a range of perspectives Musicology Classics English History Visual Culture and Museums and Archives The result is far reaching historical excavation of archival experiences Theatre History Studies 2014, Vol. 33 Elizabeth Reitz

Mullenix, 2014-12-15 Volume 33 of Theatre History Studies explores war War is a paradox horrifying and compelling galvanizing and devastating a phenomenon that separates and decimates while at the same time creating and strengthening national identity and community bonds War is the stuff of great drama War and theatre is a subject of increasing popularity among scholars of theatre The essays in this special edition of Theatre History Studies brings together a unique collection of work by thirteen innovative scholars whose work explores such topics as theatre performances during war times theatre written and performed to resist war and theatre that fosters and promotes war The contributors to this volume write poignantly about nationhood and about how war through both propaganda and protest defines a people The contributors also delve into numerous fascinating themes that transcend time peoples nations and particular conflicts the foundations of nationalism and the concepts of occupied and occupier nostalgia and utopia and patriotism and revolution These essays survey a march of civil and international wars spanning three centuries Arranged chronologically they invite comparisons between themes and trace the development of the major themes of war Ideas manifest in the theatre of one period recall ideologies and propaganda of the past reflect those of the present and anticipate wars to come The Budget of the United States Government United States, 2016
