Bollocks to Alton Towers Alex Morris, Jason Hazeley, Joel Morris, Robin Halstead, 2006-03-02 The British Lawnmower Museum Keith Harding's World of Mechanical Music and Mad Jack's Sugar Loaf In a world of theme parks interactive exhibits over priced merchandise and queues don't worry these are names to stir the soul Reassuring evidence that there's still somewhere to turn in search of the small fascinating unique and dammit British In a stumbling journey across the country in search of the best we have to offer our intrepid heroes discovered dinosaurs in South London a cold war castle in Essex grown men pretending to be warships in Scarborough unexplained tunnels under Liverpool and a terraced house in Bedford being kept warm for Jesus's return And along the way they met the people behind them all enthusiasts eccentrics and you know those who just sort of fell into looking after a vast collection of gnomes Makes you proud Archaeological Practice in Great Britain John Schofield, John Carmen, Paul Belford, 2011-08-19 This manual provides a unique user guide to practicing archaeology and working in the cultural heritage sector within the diverse settings of Great Britain comprising of England Scotland Wales the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands As part of their training archaeologists often seek work in parts of Britain either for experience before travelling elsewhere or directly as part of their career progression While this does involve reading published material on excavation techniques archaeological theory and specific heritage management practices or research using the Internet the ideal preparation to working in Britain for the first time requires practitioners to know a little about a lot Currently there is no single resource which provides that primary resource for budding archaeologists Archaeological Practice in Great Britain will provide just such a resource presented in an accessible style with a comprehensive and up to date bibliography and lists of useful websites Professionals with particular areas of expertise will contribute short sections on particular subjects incorporated into the main text prepared by the authors Throughout the specific contexts and differences between the various component nations and regions of Great Britain will be made clear

In the Ruins of the Cold War Bunker Luke Bennett, 2017-06-22 During the Cold War military and civil defence bunkers were an evocative materialisation of deadly military stand off They were also a symbol of a deeply affective pervasive anxiety about the prospect of world destroying nuclear war But following the sudden fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 these sites were swiftly abandoned and exposed to both material and semantic ruination This volume investigates the uses and meanings now projected onto these seeming blank derelict spaces It explores how engagements with bunker ruins provide fertile ground for the study of improvised meaning making place attachment hobby practices social materiality and trauma studies With its commentators ranging across the arts and humanities and the social sciences this multi disciplinary collection sets a concern with the phenomenological qualities of these places as contemporary ruins and of their strange affective affordances alongside scholarship examining how these places embody and or otherwise connect with their Cold War originations and purpose both materially and through memory and trauma Each contribution reflexively considers the process of engaging with these places and whether via the archive or direct sensory immersion In doing so the book broadens the bunker's contemporary signification and contributes to theoretically informed analysis of ruination place attachment meaning making and material culture

Stories from small museums Fiona Candlin, Toby Butler, Jake Watts, 2022-11-29 During the late twentieth century the number of museums in the UK dramatically increased Typically small and independent the new museums concentrated on local history war and transport This book asks who founded them how and why In order to find out more Fiona Candlin a professor in museology and Toby Butler an expert oral historian travelled around the UK to meet the individuals families community groups and special interest societies who established the museums The rich oral histories they collected provide a new account of recent museum history one that weaves together personal experience and social change while putting ordinary people at the heart of cultural production Combining academic rigour with a lively writing style Stories from small museums is essential reading for students and museum enthusiasts alike

New Lives, New Landscapes Revisited Linda M. Ross, Katrina Navickas, Ben Anderson, Matthew Kelly, 2023-06-08 How did rural Britain become modern during the twentieth century New Lives New Landscapes examines how the development of modern infrastructure in Britain transformed both its landscapes and the lives of those who lived within them Shifting the focus away from the city the narrative challenges us to rethink what we mean by modern Britain

What are Archives? Louise Craven, 2016-02-11 This collection of essays breaks new ground in archival studies in the UK where professional archival texts have traditionally concentrated on the how not the why of archival work Studies of the theoretical role of for example the archive and the text or the archive and political power have meanwhile been undertaken in other academic disciplines where there is an established forum for the discussion of related issues This book invites the archivist to join that arena of debate whilst appealing to all those interested in archives from other disciplines the authors encourage archivists to step away from the practicalities of keeping archives to consider what it is they actually do in the cultural context of the early 21st century The wider context of technological innovation and the internet form the backdrop to this collection The book explores change and continuity in the archival paradigm the textual nature of archives and asks if views of manuscripts and personal papers are changing it looks at specific developments in community archives at concepts of identity and culture in archives and it presents the fruits of innovative studies of users of archives Taken together these essays written by leading experts in the field provide a new understanding of the role of the archive today

So Clean Brian Lewis, 2008 This book is an unorthodox biography of William Hesketh Lever 1st Lord Leverhulme 1851-1925 the founder of the Lever Brothers Sunlight Soap empire Unlike previous biographies which have focused on the man's life story and eccentricities or just considered one aspect of his career So Clean places him squarely in his social and cultural context and is fully informed by recent historical scholarship Much more than a warts and all biography the book uses Lever as an entry point for contextualized and comparative essays on the history of advertising on factory paternalism town planning the Garden City movement and their ramifications across the twentieth century and on colonialism and forced labor in the Belgian Congo and the South Pacific It concludes with a discussion of his extraordinary attempt in his final years to transform crofting and fishing in the Outer Hebrides Written in an engaging and accessible style So Clean will appeal to academics and students working in business social cultural and imperial history More Bollocks to Alton Towers Alex Morris,Jason Hazeley,Joel Morris,Robin Halstead,2008-04-03 Leave the hordes behind pack some sandwiches and head off for a grand day out Whether it s the National Fruit Collection or the pub where time stood still Britain is stuffed full of surprising and idiosyncratic local attractions The authors of Bollocks to Alton Towers the bestselling celebration of the plucky underdogs of tourism have ventured even farther off the beaten track and into the corners that corporate branding forgot to bring you more unique glorious and uncommonly British days out Here you ll discover The garden centre with a replica of Del Boy s living room The joys of a Melton Mowbray pork pie pilgrimage The rude charms of the Boscastle Witchcraft Museum The Clowns Gallery that paints a smile on Hackney s face This book is a reminder of all the odd things that make the British what we are A hidden eccentric and joyous world of teas fans trains shoes and puppets is waiting for you out there far from the sodding crowd
