Club Journal:

The Sunlit Summit Robin Lloyd-Jones, 2013-08-15 William Hutchison Murray 1913 1996 was one of Scotland's most distinguished climbers in the years before and after the Second World War. As a prisoner of war in Italy he wrote his first classic book Mountaineering in Scotland on rough toilet paper which was confiscated and destroyed by the Gestapo. The rewritten version was published in 1947 and followed by the now equally famous Undiscovered Scotland. In 1951 he was deputy leader to Eric Shipton on the Everest Reconnaissance Expedition which discovered the eventual successful route which would be climbed by Hilary and Tensing. From the 1960s onwards he was heavily involved in conservation campaigns and his book Highland Landscape commissioned by the National Trust for Scotland identified areas of outstanding beauty that should be protected. It proved to be extremely influential. In 1966 he was awarded an OBE as he pursued a life of service as is well illustrated by the various posts he held: Commissioner for the Countryside Commission for Scotland 1968-1980, President of the Scottish Mountaineering Club 1962-1964 and of the Ramblers Association Scotland 1966-82, Chairman of Scottish Countryside Activities Council 1967-82, Vice President of the Alpine Club 1971-72, President of Mountaineering Council of Scotland 1972-75. He was a prolific author but a proper understanding of his life and work requires that we appreciate that his driving force was a quest to achieve inner purification that would lead him to oneness with Truth and Beauty. For many years the climber, author and teacher Robin Lloyd Jones above has been researching the life and work of Bill Murray and working steadily on this biography. It is not only a triumph of fine writing and interest but a worthy accolade for this great man. The Essential Book Club Journal Sarah Bates, 2017-11. Includes section Mountaineering literature. Beverly Garland Deborah Del Vecchio, 2012-12-06. Named Television's First Lady by Walter Ames of the Los Angeles Times, actress Beverly Garland 1926-2008 is also regarded as a Western and science fiction film icon. Beverly was TV's first police woman in the landmark series Decoy and was seen in starring or recurring roles in such popular shows as My Three Sons and Scarecrow and Mrs King. In addition to more than 700 television appearances she made more than 55 feature and made for television films including the cult classics Not of This Earth, It Conquered the World and The Alligator People. Working with such stars as Sinatra, Bogart and Bing Crosby, Beverly Garland had fascinating stories to tell about all of them and many more. This comprehensive biography of Beverly's life and career includes a foreword and afterword by her colleagues Joseph Campanella and Peggy Webber.

The Classical Journal, 1908 Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineer's Monthly Journal, 1903 A Monthly Magazine Devoted to the Interests of the New York Athletic Club, 1902 Journal Royal Institution of Cornwall, 1891 A Snow Book, Northern Scotland Adam Watson, 2011-09

This book documents long term studies of snow on high land in the Cairngorms including fresh snow lying in summer, the extent of snow on Ben Macdui plateau at the start of June and dates of the first fresh lying snowfalls at the sites of the main snow beds. It reviews data on the survival of snow patches through to the following winter and recounts a decline of snow patches in recent decades. The author describes observations on rock lichens in relation to snow lie and lists vantage points on public roads with good views of places with snow patches on alpine land. He describes skiing in and near Aberdeen in the snowy winters of the early 1950s and an exceptional snowfall in the Cairngorms at the start of September 1976. The author presents some descriptions and photographs of how birds and mammals use snow for shelter and sleeping. It has long been well known that red grouse, ptarmigan and mountain hares use snow hollows but here the author illustrates how a fox used a snow hole and how an otter made a snow slide. He presents photographs of snow pillars, snow holes made by human parties practising in winter and avalanches. Next he draws attention to the observation that the extent and species of lichen and moss on cliffs, boulders and soil signify the extent of snow lie. These plants are absent on sites where snow lies very late or where frequent avalanches plunging down the cliff or water flowing down it prevent plants from growing. Where prolonged snow lie occurs at the foot of cliffs or on cliff tops a band of pale greenish yellow rock lichens that thrive in snowy conditions is conspicuous and in sunshine easily visible to the naked eye at over a mile distance. Lastly he presents some photographs that show snow mould growing on hill vegetation in Iceland and Scotland.

Keywords: Snow, climate, weather, physical geography, science, birds, mammals.

Author: Adam Watson BSc PhD DSc DUniv. Raised in lowland Aberdeenshire, is a retired research ecologist aged 81. He began lifelong interests on winter snow in 1937, snow patches in 1938, the Cairngorms in 1939. A mountaineer and ski mountaineer since boyhood, he has experienced Scotland, Iceland, Norway, Sweden, mainland Canada, Newfoundland, Baffin Island, Finland, Switzerland, Italy, Vancouver Island and Alaska. His main research was and is on population biology, behaviour and habitat of northern birds and mammals. In retirement he has contributed 16 scientific publications on snow patches since 1994. He is a Fellow of the Arctic Institute of North America, Centre for Ecology and Hydrology, Royal Meteorological Society, Royal Society of Edinburgh and Society of Biology and an Emeritus Member of the Ecological Society of America. Since 1954 he has been a member of the Scottish Mountaineering Club and since 1968 author of the Club's District Guide to the Cairngorms A Guide to Serial Publications Founded Prior to 1918 and Now Or Recently Current in Boston, Cambridge, and Vicinity Thomas Johnston Homer, 1922 The New Mountaineer in Late Victorian Britain Alan McNee, 2017-04-18 This book is about the rise of a new ethos in British mountaineering during the late nineteenth century. It traces how British attitudes to mountains were transformed by developments both within the new sport of mountaineering and in the wider fin de siècle culture. The emergence of the new genre of mountaineering literature which helped to create a self-conscious community of climbers with broadly shared values coincided with a range of cultural and scientific trends that also influenced the direction of mountaineering. The author discusses the growing preoccupation with the physical basis of aesthetic sensations and with physicality and materiality in general, the new interest in the physiology of effort and fatigue and the characteristically Victorian drive to enumerate, codify and classify. Examining a wide range of texts from memoirs and climbing club journals to hotel visitors' books, he argues that the figure known as the New Mountaineer was seen to embody a distinctly modern approach to mountain climbing and mountain aesthetics. The Journal of the Iron and Steel Institute Iron and Steel Institute, 1907 Includes the institute's Proceedings Journal of the Royal Society of Arts Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain), 1908 The Zoological Record, 1882 Nitrocellulose Industry Edward Chauncey Worden, 1911 Year Book Shattuck School, 1906 Coöperative List of Periodical Literature [in California Libraries] ...
