

The Breadwinner
Book Report Summary

Cecily Davis 10-1-13
Mrs. Weekes S.S

They burst into the room. Utter disrespect. She sees their scary face as they try and take away her father but Parvana doesn't give up on saving him. Her mother has attempted to free her husband. She pounded the Taliban across their chest but soon after, the Taliban wacked her across her back with a gun. Ali and Mayram the youngest children don't understand what is going on but each time the soldier hit their mother they screamed in fear of her being hurt. Parvana steps into action once she sees her mother lying on the floor in excruciating pain. She flung and held onto one of the soldiers as they took her father out. Nooria is the oldest of the 4. She is hiding since she knows Taliban take young women to never return back to their home. One Taliban stays and pulls out pots and scarves and blankets and almost got to her father's secret books. Parvana's father has been taken because of his education for he attended England University. They are (in the diorama) about to drag him out the apartment down the stairs. The family is torn apart. The only thing left for them to do is wait for his return
