No Place Like Home Jerri Garretson,2023-08-21 Jerri Garretson lived a total of 33 years in Manhattan Kansas in three periods This book features 55 topics about life in the years she was growing up there plus 13 mini biographies of teachers and neighbors that were important in her life It is illustrated with over 800 photos of people places and events and even everyday objects most of us no longer use To assist readers unfamiliar with Manhattan she has included maps and to anchor local events to the nation and the world there is a timeline The book is thoroughly indexed Though many dates and events are mentioned it is not a history of the city but rather an entertaining account about the way of life in that time and place Please be aware that this is a 298 page heavily illustrated book in the same fixed format as the printed book As such it is a download of about large download of approximately 227 MB and will take much longer to download than a novel in flowing format that has no illustrations

No Place Like Home Harley Christensen,2022-01-11 Look around your street At your neighbors You may occasionally wave to one another but do you truly know them Perhaps you don't want to Because what goes on behind their closed doors is not any of your business Until it is Arianna Jackson's best friend Leah is missing Her car is abandoned at the airport Her key possessions are still present Blood is dripping from the trunk A lot of it Her last known sighting was at a club she would never frequent one where people are lured to after parties at vacation rental properties in seemingly quiet normal neighborhoods That is until girls begin to go missing when the party is over And others turn up dead In order to track Leah's path AJ must elicit assistance from several unlikely sources who are at odds with one another many of whom are known to have ulterior motives Along the way she must not only rely on these sources she must decipher the truth from the lies in an underground world where silence is a non negotiable And the cost of admission may just be her life While based on fiction No Place Like Home addresses questions we are currently facing Are you aware of what is going on in your own neighborhood What are you willing to risk to keep your loved ones safe Join AJ in this suspense filled edge of your seat thriller as she races to find her best friend and bring her home Alive

No Place Like Home DeAnna Holland,2014-03-25 Whether the system works or it doesn't it didn't work for me Having just aged out of foster care eighteen year old Jules finds herself homeless and broke Shortly after her eighteenth birthday she's sent packing with very little money and very few personal belongings However with her social worker's help she finds a place that she can call home temporarily But growing up in foster care has left her emotionally scarred and opening up to people and letting them in is not something she ever wants to do again Until she meets Jake The attraction is almost instant and he is someone she can definitely see herself falling for But Jules quickly discovers that everything is not always as it seems and people are rarely who they appear to be After learning the truth about Jake she wants nothing more to do with him But Jake is captivated by Jules not just because of her mesmerizing hazel eyes but because she has unwavering strength despite the unfortunate life she's had and he's not letting go that easily He's determined to win her heart and with each passing day he shreds more of her resolve With Jake's help Jules soon discovers that even though she has spent most of her life parentless and homeless there s no place like home

No Place Like Home Mary Higgins Clark,2008-09-04 Liza Barclay aged 10 shot her mother while trying to protect her from her violent stepfather ex FBI agent Charley Foster Despite her stepfather s claim that it was a deliberate act the Juvenile Court ruled the death an accident Many people however agreed with Foster and tabloids compared Liza to the infamous murderess Lizzie Borden pointing even to the similarity in name Growing up with adoptive parents who tried to erase every trace of her past her name is changed to Celia Always though the fear hung over her and the family that someday her vengeful stepfather would reappear to harm her Aged 25 a successful interior designer she marries a childless sixty year old widower and they have a son Before their marriage she had confided her earlier life to her husband Two years on on his deathbed he tells her that he would want her to re marry but makes her swear never to reveal her past to anyone so that their son would not carry the burden of this family tragedy a promise that plunges her into a new cycle of violence Three years later happily re married Celia is shocked when her second husband presents her with a gift the house where she killed her mother When the real estate agent who has made the sale recognises her and soon after is murdered Celia is accused of the crime Once again she is home the place where she is stamped as a murderess

There's No Place Like Home Anna Lou Dehavenon,1999-01-30 This collection of essays addresses the lack of shelter one of the most basic elements of human adaptation now experienced by many Americans Based on the presupposition that shelter is a basic human right in the world s richest most advanced nation the authors of these essays look more closely than others have yet done at the causes of the current low income housing crisis and homelessness Ten anthropologists and a mental health worker use participant observation and other ethnographic methods to observe and document the experiential and geographic diversity of U S homelessness Each chapter focuses on a specific geographic area urban suburban or rural and a specific category of homeless people families with children solitary adults or both Based on their findings the authors also present policy recommendations to ameliorate the housing shortage and prevent homelessness at local state and federal levels
