Christina Rossetti And The Bible Waiting With The Saints:

Christina Rossetti and the Bible Elizabeth Ludlow, 2014-10-23 Through theologically engaged close readings of her poetry and devotional prose this book explores how Christina Rossetti draws on the Bible and encourages her Victorian readers to respond to its radical message of grace Structured chronologically each chapter investigates her participation in the formation of Tractarian theology and details how her interpretative strategies changed over the course of her lifetime Revealing how her encounter with the biblical text is informed by devotional classics Christina Rossetti and the Bible highlights the influence of Thomas a Kempis John Bunyan George Herbert and John Donne and describes how Rossetti adapted the teaching of the Ancient and Patristic Fathers and medieval mystics It also considers the interfaces that are established between her devotional poems and the anthology and periodical pieces alongside which they were published throughout the second half of the nineteenth century

Prayer and Embodiment in Nineteenth-Century Women's Writing Elizabeth Ludlow, 2025-02-20 In the 19th century an era that saw a reconfiguration of the relationship between the self the world and the divine women writers probed the theological depths of embodied faith in new ways through poetry fiction devotional prose and life writing Elizabeth Ludlow explores how through this process they articulated what it means to pray and thereby understand one's place in a world of individual and communal bodies The eight women writers discussed Elizabeth Barrett Browning Josephine Butler George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell Dora Greenwell Felicia Hemans Adelaide Procter and Christina Rossetti provide accounts of prayer that stress that the only way to experience and respond to something of the transcendent is through embracing lived experience and through a recognition of the connectedness of all bodies In detailing how these writers engage with new ways of thinking about faith desire and the material world Ludlow argues that they offer models for ethical modes of being in the world and pave the way for later theologies of embodiment

Faith in Poetry Michael D. Hurley, 2017-11-16 In this ambitious book Michael D Hurley explores how five great writers William Blake Alfred Tennyson Christina Rossetti Gerard Manley Hopkins and T S Eliot engaged their religious faith in poetry with a view to asking why they chose that literary form in the first place What did they believe poetry could say or do that other kinds of language or expression could not And how might poetry itself operate as a unique mode of believing These deep questions meet at the crossroads of poetics and metaphysics and the writers considered here offer different answers But these writers also collectively shed light on the interplay between literature and theology across the long nineteenth century at a time when the authority and practice of both was being fiercely reimagined

Sacramental Identity T. Ryan Dillon, 2024-04-01 Who am I A theology of personal identity and an answer to that question should be integral to any theological anthropology For some the answer is found in what many have called expressive individualism an inward turn toward the self and who and what I feel is most authentic to that self Christians respond that we are no longer that person we are in Christ But do either of these answers truly respond to the realities of both storied and embodied persons living out a life over time and change or the demand for an answer of stability throughout that endless change Sacramental Identity seeks to answer these questions by grounding personal identity in Scripture history and a rich theology of the sacraments of the church In a time where many are skeptical of the church's care for the embodied and storied realities of human life the sacraments invite us into the story of Christ and the church to discover who we are

Victorian Verse Lee Behlman, Olivia Loksing Moy, 2023-08-04 Victorian Verse The Poetics of Everyday Life casts new light on nineteenth century poetry by examining the period through its popular verse forms and their surrounding social and media landscape The volume offers insight into two central concepts of both the Victorian era and our own status and taste and how cultural hierarchies then and now were and are constructed and broken By recovering the lost diversity of Victorian verse the book maps the breadth of Victorian writing and reading practices illustrating how these seemingly minor verse genres actually possessed crucial social functions for Victorians particularly in education leisure practices the cultural production of class and the formation of individual and communal identities The essays consider how major Victorian poets such as the Pre Raphaelites were also committed to writing and reading minor verse further troubling the clear cut notions of canonicity by examining the contradictions of value

Victorian Poetry Isobel Armstrong, 2019-01-30 In Victorian Poetry Poetry Poetics and Politics Isobel Armstrong rescued Victorian poetry from its longstanding sepia image as a moralised form of romantic verse and unearthed its often subversive critique of nineteenth century culture and politics In this uniquely comprehensive and theoretically astute new edition Armstrong provides an entirely new preface that notes the key advances in the criticism of Victorian poetry since her classic work was first published in 1993 A new chapter on the alternative fin de siècle sees Armstrong discuss Michael Field Rudyard Kipling Alice Meynell and a selection of Hardy lyrics The extensive bibliography acts as a key resource for students and scholars alike

The Expository Times, 1911 Old and New Edward Everett Hale, 1871 Notes and Queries, 1917 The Congregationalist and Advance, 1919 The Kindergarten and First Grade, 1916 Women of Courage Debra Evans, 2000-09-21 Evans celebrates women whose spiritual valor made a difference in the world in which they lived offering an abundance of role models for contemporary Christian women Using resplendent examples from the Old and New Testaments saints biographies church history and contemporary women Evans explores six traits of courage as viewed in the stories of biblical women humility patience trust vision love and vocation

The Expository Times James Hastings, Ann Wilson Hastings, Edward Hastings, 1911 The Christian Century, 1923 The Figure of Christ in the Long Nineteenth Century Elizabeth Ludlow, 2021-08-01 This book is an interdisciplinary collection of essays that explores the variety of ways in which the interface between understanding the figure of Christ the place of the cross and the contours of lived experience was articulated through the long nineteenth century Collectively the chapters respond to the theological turn in postmodern thought by asking vital questions about the way in which representations of Christ shape understandings of personhood and of the divine
