No Stable Too Small Lois Anne DeLong, Barbara Anne Antonucci, 2006-01-01 Here's a collection of humorous down to earth plays that bring a fresh perspective to the Christmas story through such creative devices as imagining the thoughts and feelings of fringe characters like an innkeeper or a servant to one of the magi or by updating the story with contemporary settings and characters No Stable Too Small offers a variety of practical material for any situation ranging from shorter plays with small casts and lines that can be easily mastered by younger children to more elaborate pieces with sophisticated themes for older children and adults And they're ideal for use with today's young people the dialogue reflects the way they really talk yet never detracts from the biblical message These flexible scenes offer a mix of speaking parts for all age groups from preschool through adult and are especially valuable for small congregations that lack the resources to mount large scale productions No sets are required and only simple costumes and minimal props are needed The plays can be performed by smaller churches with as few as 8-10 cast members or parts can be easily divided to accommodate groups as large as 25-30 And with a running time of approximately 20-25 minutes each it's easy to fit them within a Christmas Eve or Advent Sunday worship service Some of the charming presentations include Love Finds a Way It Wasn't the Hilton You Know Christmas Eve at Angel School Because God Said So That's Why No Small Parts Unto Us a Child Is Born Next on Omar Miracles No Problem and eight more Lois Anne DeLong is currently a freelance writer and editor in Bay Shore New York She previously served 25 years in public relations publishing and marketing for the American Institute of Chemical Engineers A graduate of New York University DeLong is an active member of Brentwood Presbyterian Church in Brentwood New York Barbara Anne Antonucci was born and raised in Brentwood New York and is a lifelong member of Brentwood Presbyterian Church A graduate of St Joseph's College Antonucci now resides in Monroe North Carolina

Centuries ,1909 They Worshiped Him Gail K. Keffer,2001-06 In today s hurry up world it seems we rarely take the time to think of other people and walk a mile in the other man s shoes If we did what would we see They Worshiped Him revisits the nativity story from the perspective of the people who were actually there In this dramatic retelling we glimpse the innermost thoughts and feelings of some of the very common people whose lives were forever changed by a most extraordinary event What did the shepherds feel What did others think of them Were they perceived as eccentric And what about the wise men who followed the star Did they have an entire entourage or did people treat them like three dottering old men And what about Mary and Joseph how did this unusual pregnancy affect them They Worshiped Him answers many of these questions while reminding us of the biblical characters humanity The singing of favorite seasonal carols is woven into the drama encouraging audience participation And it s an adaptable work that can be staged as elaborately or simply as you wish While there are speaking parts for 12 angels 5 animals 6 shepherds 3 magi the innkeeper Mary Joseph and a narrator roles can easily be combined for use with any size congregation Staging instructions are included Far too many plays being marketed to churches today are not well written place unreasonable requirements on the space and talent available in the average local church and contain biblically inaccurate statements and characterizations Gail Keffer s play They Worshiped Him doesn t present any of those problems It is written in a flexible manner that makes it easy to adapt to a worship service dinner theater or a feature length play for an annual Christmas production It also does a magnificent job of presenting a biblically accurate version of the nativity story that can be heard understood and remembered by all of God s children We used this play two years ago and people are still talking about it One comment I heard was that the play made Mary seem like a real person and not a stained glass Madonna who s out of touch with the realities people like us face Kari Turner McClellan Senior Pastor First Presbyterian Church Levittown Pennsylvania Gail K Keffer is a graduate of Slippery Rock University B S and M Ed An active member of Glen Moore Presbyterian Church in New Castle Pennsylvania Keffer is a former schoolteacher who has run a needlework design business and is currently the proprietor of The Amish Peddler a business specializing in the sale of fine Amish made furniture

The Night Before Christmas Alice E. Allen, 1906 Why We Need the Church to Become More Like Jesus Joseph H. Hellerman, 2017-11-09 Many of us long to experience the fullness of God and his purpose for our lives Not a whole lot of us ever do The reason is that we have departed in some significant ways from the biblical view of Christian life and growth The New Testament highlights the communal missional and eschatological aspects of our walk with God We grow in our faith as individual Christians to the degree that we are deeply rooted relationally in a local church community that is passionately playing its part in God's grand story of Creation Fall Redemption and Restoration and contently anticipating the summing of all things in Christ when Jesus returns In recent decades American evangelicals have traded away community outreach and the Bible's teaching about eternity future for the pursuit of individual religious experience in the here and now Why We Need the Church to Become More Like Jesus traces this departure from biblical Christianity through recent decades of popular evangelical trends and reminds us that faith centered on community mission and the story line of Scripture remains the key to the spiritual formation of the individual Christian
