Messner, 2018-05-30 No detailed description available for No Slam Dunk. Mapping the Social Landscape Susan J. Ferguson, 2020-08-27 The author is a proud sponsor of the 2020 SAGE Keith Roberts Teaching Innovations Award enabling graduate students and early career faculty to attend the annual ASA pre conference teaching and learning workshop. Mapping The Social Landscape is one of the most established and widely used readers for Introductory Sociology. The organization follows that of a typical introductory sociology course and provides coverage of key concepts including culture socialization deviance social structure social inequality social institutions and social change. Susan J Ferguson selects edits and introduces 58 readings representing a plurality of voices and views within sociology. The selections include classic statements from great thinkers like C Wright Mills Karl Marx and Max Weber as well of the works of contemporary scholars who address current social issues. Throughout this collection there are many opportunities to discuss individual interactional and structural levels of society the roles of race ethnicity class gender and sexuality in shaping social life and the intersection of statuses and identities. Included with this title The password protected Instructor Resource Site formally known as SAGE Edge offers access to all text specific resources including a test bank and editable chapter specific PowerPoint slides. John Beilein at Michigan Tim Rooney, 2020-02-12 When John Beilein arrived at University of Michigan in 2007 the once proud men s basketball program was adrift after failing to reach the NCAA Tournament for nine straight seasons. Over the next twelve years he became the program s all time winningest coach reached two national championship games won four Big Ten championships and produced eight NBA first round draft picks. In an age of ethical lapses throughout college basketball Beilein succeeded without a hint of impropriety. As much a teacher as a coach he consistently identified undervalued recruits taught them his innovative offensive system and carefully developed them into better players an approach to the game that drove his unprecedented rise from high school junior varsity coach to head coach of the Cleveland Cavaliers. This book examines his tenure at Michigan in detail for the first time. The Encyclopedia of the NCAA Basketball Tournament Jim Savage, 1990 The book that every basketball fan has been waiting for celebrates the complete history of who and what made basketball the sport it is today. A one of a kind treasury of all the facts stats and background that can t be found anywhere else. 16 page photo insert. Globalized Sport Management in Diverse Cultural Contexts James J. Zhang, Brenda G. Pitts, 2019-04-05 Cross cultural management is an important facet of the globalized sport industry Sport managers must be skilled at working with individuals from diverse cultures and aware of the key issues affecting sport on a global level This book brings together cutting edge research from leading sport scholars from around the world to illuminate some of those important issues and to demonstrate what cross cultural management looks like in a sporting context Presenting case studies from countries as diverse as the US Brazil Poland and Venezuela and across a range of sports from football to basketball the book presents new empirical material derived from a range of inquiry protocols including both qualitative and quantitative methods It offers critical analyses of cross cultural and managerial issues in key areas such as group cohesiveness group communications and misperception and misinterpretation Making an important contribution to our understanding of both theory and practice in sport management this book is fascinating reading for any student researcher or practitioner with an interest in global and international sport Performance
