Seven Rivers Vanessa Taylor, 2025-09-23 A magisterial history of the seven rivers representing the great natural arteries running through civilization by virtue of the roles they have played in our shared and conflicted world history Every river deserves its own history The seven rivers in this narrative were chosen because they are major rivers that magnify the common qualities of these great natural arteries that run through civilization The Nile Danube Niger Mississippi Ganges Yangtze and Thames are all world rivers by virtue of the roles they have each played in our shared and conflicted world history They have served as the power bases for empires and have been fought over as frontiers Their river basins those great systems of tributaries and groundwater all flowing to the main river have been plundered for their gold timber salt oil rubber and their people Vast networks have been forged between these rivers such as the deadly middle passage of the slave trade linking the Congo and Mississippi basins And rivers themselves have always had their own logic their natural beauties their floods droughts water borne diseases their tendency to silt up and mutate into marshland their marshy subsidence below the cities of the unwary their changes of course tipping points and disappearances These rivers have shaped our lives just as we have shaped theirs What follows is the story of humanity in seven rivers Naturalist Histories Jamon Alex Halvaksz, Joshua A. Bell, 2024-03-31 From early explorers to contemporary scientists naturalists have examined island flora and fauna of Oceania discovering new species carefully documenting the lives of animals and creating work central to the image of Oceania These discoveries and exploratory moves have had profound local and global impacts Often however local knowledge and communities are silent in the ethologies and histories that naturalists produce This volume analyzes the ways that Indigenous and non Indigenous naturalists have made island natures visible to a wider audience their relationship with the communities where they work as well as the unique natures that they explore and help make In staking out an area of naturalist histories each contributor addresses the relationship between naturalists and Oceanic communities how these histories shaped past and present place and practices the influence on conservations and development projects and the relationship between scientific and indigenous knowledge The essays span across colonial and postcolonial frames tracing shifts in biological practice from the eighteenth and nineteenth century focus on taxonomy and discovery to the twentieth century disciplinary restructurings and new collecting strategies and contemporary concerns with biodiversity loss conservation and knowledge formation The production of scientific knowledge is typically seen in ethnographic accounts as oppositional contrasting Indigenous and western local and global objective and subjective Such dichotomous views reinforce differences and further exaggerate inequities in the production of knowledge More dangerously value distinctions become embedded in discussions of Indigenous identity rights and sovereignty Contributors acknowledge that these dichotomous narratives have dominated the approach of the scientific community while informing how social scientists have understood the contributions of Pacific communities The essays offer a nuanced gradient as historical narratives of scientific investigation in dialogue with local histories and reveal greater levels of participation in the creation of knowledge The volume highlights how power infuses the scientific endeavor and offers a distinct and diverse view of knowledge production in Oceania Combining senior and emerging international scholars the collection will be of interest to researchers in the social sciences history as well as biology and allied fields Flood Risk Management Edmund C. Penning-Rowsell, Matilda Becker, 2019-01-22 Our changing climate and more extreme weather events have dramatically increased the number and severity of floods across the world Demonstrating the diversity of global flood risk management FRM this volume covers a range of topics including planning and policy risk governance and communication forecasting and warning and economics Through short case studies the range of international examples from North America Europe Asia and Africa provide analysis of FRM efforts processes and issues from human governance and policy implementation perspectives Written by an international set of authors this collection of chapters and case studies will allow the reader to see how floods and flood risk management is experienced in different regions of the world The way in which institutions manage flood risk is discussed introducing the notions of realities and social constructions when it comes to risk management The book will be of great interest to students and professionals of flood coastal river and natural hazard management as well as risk analysis and insurance demonstrating multiple academic frameworks of analysis and their utility and drawbacks when applied to real life FRM contexts BBC Wildlife ,2005 Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1983 Unpublished London Diaries Heather Creaton, 2003 A unique snapshot of London life as recorded by diarists whose interests range from high politics to housework childbirth to deathbeds burglaries to bowel movements In a city of London s complexity and size it can be difficult to pinpoint the experience of the individual at a specific period Diaries however represent a valuable approach into this elusive world Diarists may concentrate on great events or on the comparative trivia of their everyday round but they all convey some genuine flavour of London life that is hard to find in other sources The Gramophone ,2005 BBC London Calling ,1981 BBC Worldwide ,1993 BBC Music Magazine ,1999 Listener and BBC Television Review ,1984-07 Punch ,1927 Quite Contrary Mary Whitehouse, 1993 Radio Times ,1961 Patterns ,1999 Using Computers in the Language Classroom Christopher Jones, Sue Fortescue, 1987 The Musical Times ,1964 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1968 London Calling ,1981 The Spectator ,1924 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art
