Classic Hollywood Veronica Pravadelli, 2015-01-30 Studies of Classic Hollywood typically treat Hollywood films released from 1930 to 1960 as a single interpretive mass Veronica Pravadelli complicates this idea Focusing on dominant tendencies in box office hits and Oscar recognized classics she breaks down the so called classic period into six distinct phases that follow Hollywood's amazingly diverse offerings from the emancipated females of the Transition Era and the traditional men and women of the conservative 1930s that replaced it to the fantastical Fifties movie musicals that arose after anti classic genres like film noir and women's films Pravadelli sets her analysis apart by paying particular attention to the gendered desires and identities exemplified in the films Availing herself of the significant advances in film theory and modernity studies that have taken place since similar surveys first saw publication she views Hollywood through strategies as varied as close textual analysis feminism psychoanalysis film style and study of cinematic imagery revealing the inconsistencies and antithetical traits lurking beneath Classic Hollywood's supposed transparency William Faulkner in Hollywood Stefan Solomon, 2017-08-01 A scholarly examination of the scripts and fiction Faulkner created during his foray as a Hollywood screenwriter During more than two decades 1932 1954 William Faulkner worked on approximately fifty screenplays for major Hollywood studios and was credited on such classics as The Big Sleep and To Have and Have Not Faulkner's film scripts and later television scripts constitute an extensive and until now thoroughly underexplored archival source Stefan Solomon analyzes the majority of these scripts and also compares them to the fiction Faulkner was writing concurrently His aim to reconcile two aspects of a career that were not as distinct as they first might seem Faulkner the screenwriter and Faulkner the modernist Nobel Prize winning author As Solomon shows Faulkner adjusting to the idiosyncrasies of the screenwriting process a craft he never favored or admired he offers insights into Faulkner's compositional practice thematic preoccupations and understanding of both cinema and television In the midst of this complex exchange of media and genres much of Faulkner's fiction of the 1930s and 1940s was directly influenced by his protracted engagement with the film industry Solomon helps us to see a corpus integrating two vastly different modes of writing and a restless author Faulkner was never only the southern novelist or the West Coast hack writer but always both at once Solomon's study shows that Faulkner's screenplays are crucial in any consideration of his far more esteemed fiction and that the two forms of writing are more porous and intertwined than the author himself would have us believe Here is a major American writer seen in a remarkably new way The New Woman's Film Hilary Radner, 2017-01-20 With the chick flick arguably in decline film scholars may well ask what has become of the woman's film Little attention has been paid to the proliferation of films often from the independent sector that do not sit comfortably in either the category of popular culture or that of high art films that are perhaps the corollary of the middle brow novel or smart chick flicks This book seeks to fill this void by focusing on the steady stream of films about and for women that emerge out of independent American and European cinema and that are designed to address an international female audience The new woman s film as a genre includes narratives with strong ties to the woman s film of classical Hollywood while constituting a new distinctive cycle of female centered films that in many ways continue the project of second wave feminism albeit in a modified form Topics addressed include The Bridges of Madison County Clint Eastwood 1995 the feature length films of Nicole Holofcener 1996 2013 the film roles of Tilda Swinton Rachel Getting Married Jonathan Demme 2008 Blue Jasmine Woody Allen 2013 Frances Ha Noah Baumbach 2012 Belle Amma Asante 2013 Fifty Shades of Grey Sam Taylor Johnson 2015 and Jane Campion s Top of the Lake Sundance Channel 2013

The ^AABCs of Classic Hollywood Robert B. Ray, 2008-04-30 Speaking about the kind of filmmaking now known as Classic Hollywood the most popular and influential cinema ever invented Vincente Minnelli once gave away its secret I feel that a picture that stays with you is made up of a hundred or more hidden things They re things that the audience is not conscious of but that accumulate What are those hidden things Can we invent a method that will enable us to discover them Robert Ray attempts to answer those questions by looking closely at four movies from the 1930 1945 period when the American studio system reached the peak of its economic and cultural power Grand Hotel The Philadelphia Story The Maltese Falcon and Meet Me in St Louis To avoid the predictable generalizations that have plagued film studies Ray works with the movies details Grand Hotel s room assignments or Meet Me in St Louis s ketchup which are treated as mysterious but promising clues By producing at least one entry for every letter of the alphabet Ray demonstrates that a movie s details have much to tell us The ABCs of Classic Hollywood is a movie primer a deceptively simple book that spells out a fascinating account of the most powerful storytelling system ever designed

Crafting Patriotism for Global Dominance Mark Dyreson, 2013-10-18 In 2008 China plans to use the Olympic Games to remake its national identity in the global marketplace In so doing China treads the path blazed by the United States For more than a century the U S has used the Olympic Games to construct national identity create communal memory and craft patriotic mythology From opening parades where the American team refuses to dip its flag in order to signal American exceptionalism to the closing ceremonies where the U S media trumpet that their team owes its medals not to superior athleticism but to the nation s peerless social and political systems Olympic Games have served as sites to bolster American nationalism More than any other nation the United States has politicized its Olympic participation In the process a host of myths about American superiority in global encounters has emerged through the Olympics In memorializing and mythologizing their Olympic teams Americans have revealed the contours of the racial gender and class dynamics that animate their peculiar nationhood These essays explore the history of expressions of American national identity in Olympic arenas This book was published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport

Los Angeles Magazine , 2003-11 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian     Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton,1993     Cue ,1977     Pre-Code Hollywood Thomas Doherty,1999-08-27 Pre Code Hollywood explores the fascinating period in American motion picture history from 1930 to 1934 when the commandments of the Production Code Administration were violated with impunity in a series of wildly unconventional films a time when censorship was lax and Hollywood made the most of it Though more unbridled salacious subversive and just plain bizarre than what came afterwards the films of the period do indeed have the look of Hollywood cinema but the moral terrain is so off kilter that they seem imported from a parallel universe In a sense Doherty avers the films of pre Code Hollywood are from another universe They lay bare what Hollywood under the Production Code attempted to cover up and push offscreen sexual liaisons unsanctified by the laws of God or man marriage ridiculed and redefined ethnic lines crossed and racial barriers ignored economic injustice exposed and political corruption assumed vice unpunished and virtue unrewarded in sum pretty much the raw stuff of American culture unvarnished and unveiled No other book has yet sought to interpret the films and film related meanings of the pre Code era what defined the period why it ended and what its relationship was to the country as a whole during the darkest years of the Great Depression and afterward     The ABCs of Classic Hollywood Robert Beverley Ray,2023 The ABCs of Classic Hollywood examines four movies from the 1930 1945 period when the American Studio System reached the peak of its economic and cultural power Grand Hotel The Philadelphia Story The Maltese Falcon and Meet Me in St Louis     Classic Hollywood, Classic Whiteness Daniel Bernardi,2001     American Cinema of the 1930s Ina Rae Hark,2007-06-21 Probably no decade saw as many changes in the Hollywood film industry and its product as the 1930s did At the beginning of the decade the industry was still struggling with the transition to talking pictures Gangster films and naughty comedies starring Mae West were popular in urban areas but aroused threats of censorship in the heartland Whether the film business could survive the economic effects of the Crash was up in the air By 1939 popularly called Hollywood s Greatest Year films like Gone With the Wind and The Wizard of Oz used both color and sound to spectacular effect and remain American icons today The mature oligopoly that was the studio system had not only weathered the Depression and become part of mainstream culture through the establishment and enforcement of the Production Code it was a well oiled vertically integrated industrial powerhouse The ten original essays in American Cinema of the 1930s focus on sixty diverse films of the decade including Dracula The Public Enemy Trouble in Paradise 42nd Street King Kong Imitation of Life The Adventures of Robin Hood Swing Time Angels with Dirty Faces Nothing Sacred Jezebel Mr Smith Goes to Washington and Stagecoach     A Certain Tendency of the Hollywood Cinema, 1930-1980 Robert Beverley Ray,1985 This book examines the ideology of the most enduring most popular cinema in the world the Hollywood movie Aided by 364 frame enlargements Robert B Ray analyzes the development of that historically overdetermined form giving close readings of five typical instances Casablanca It s a Wonderful Life The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance The Godfather and Taxi Driver Like the heroes of these movies American filmmaking has avoided commitment in both plot and technique Instead of choosing left or right avant garde of tradition American cinema tries to have it both ways

American Cinema of the 1920s Lucy Fischer,2009-04-15 During the 1920s sound revolutionized the motion picture industry and cinema continued as one of the most significant and popular forms of mass entertainment in the world Film studios were transformed into major corporations hiring a host of craftsmen and technicians including cinematographers editors screenwriters and set designers The birth of the star system supported the meteoric rise and celebrity status of actors including Charlie Chaplin Mary Pickford Joan Crawford Greta Garbo and Rudolph Valentino while black performers relegated to race films appeared infrequently in mainstream movies The classic Hollywood film style was perfected and significant film genres were established the melodrama western historical epic and romantic comedy along with slapstick science fiction and fantasy In ten original essays American Cinema of the 1920s examines the film industry s continued growth and prosperity while focusing on important themes of the era

100 Favorite Classic Hollywood Films from the 1930s, 40s, and 50s Gary Koca,2019-07-26 In two past books that I have written I focused on Forgotten Stars of the 1930s through the 1950s that is stars who were pretty big movie stars in their time but that most people today would not be familiar with unless they were fans of classic Hollywood films of that era I have also written books on great Western stars and on good and bad science fiction movies of the 1950s In this book however I am concentrating on my favorite 100 movies of the 1930s 1940s and 1950s I have focused on American films only with a few British films included also I am not an expert on foreign language films so there are none in here Please note that this means that they are MY favorite films not the BEST films of those three decades For example Citizen Kane along with Casablanca are generally regarded as the best two American films of the classic era However while I like Citizen Kane it is just not one of my favorite films and I m not really sure why Perhaps I never thought it really justified its ranking so I dropped it from my list altogether The same thing would apply to Vertigo although I have two other Hitchcock films in the list I will also admit that I am partial to certain genres of films in particular the following Westerns Film noir Monster movies Horror movies Mysteries particular those of Alfred Hitchcock Swashbucklers musicals

Decoding the Movies Prof. Richard Maltby,2021-03-15 This book decodes 1930s Hollywood movies and explains why they looked and behaved in the way they did Organized through a series of related case studies the book exposes Classical Hollywood movies to a detailed analysis of their historical industrial and cultural contexts In the process it utilizes industry data aesthetic analysis and the insights of New Cinema History to explain why and how these movies assumed their familiar forms The book represents the summation of Richard Maltby s four decades of scholarship in the field of Hollywood cinema The essays presented here share an assumption that has increasingly informed the author s critical method over the years that any historical understanding of the films of this period requires a deep contextualization in the social circumstances surrounding both their production and consumption In this way the book introduces an innovative overarching research methodology that synthesizes branches of research that are typically employed in isolation including production distribution reception film aesthetics and cultural and historical context Of the book s nine chapters three are presented here for the first time and four have been substantially revised and extended from their original publication

Celebrity gossip meets history in this compulsively readable collection from BuzzFeed reporter Anne Helen Peterson This guide to film stars and their deepest secrets is sure to top your list for movie gifts and appeal to fans of classic cinema and hollywood history alike Believe it or not America s fascination with celebrity culture was thriving well before the days of TMZ Cardi B Kanye s tweets and the metoo allegations that have gripped Hollywood And the stars of yesteryear They weren t always the saints that we make them out to be BuzzFeed s Anne Helen Petersen author of Too Fat Too Slutty Too Loud is here to set the record straight Pulling little known gems from the archives of film history Petersen reveals eyebrow raising information including The smear campaign against the original It Girl Clara Bow started by her best friend The heartbreaking story of Montgomery Clift s rapid rise to fame the car accident that destroyed his face and the long suicide that followed Fatty Arbuckle s descent from Hollywood royalty fueled by allegations of a boozy orgy turned violent assault Why Mae West was arrested and jailed for indecency charges And much more Part biography part cultural history these stories cover the stuff that films are made of love sex drugs illegitimate children illicit affairs and botched cover ups But it s not all just tawdry gossip in the pages of this book The stories are all contextualized within the boundaries of film cultural political and gender history making for a read that will inform as it entertains Based on Petersen s beloved column on the Hairpin but featuring 100% new content Scandals of Classic Hollywood is sensationalism made smart

The Golden Age of Cinema Richard Jewell, 2007-11-19 This comprehensive book illuminates the most fertile and exciting period in American film a time when the studio system was at its peak and movies played a critical role in elevating the spirits of the public Richard B Jewell offers a highly readable yet deeply informed account of the economics technology censorship style genres stars and history of Hollywood during its classical era A major introductory textbook covering what is arguably the most fertile and exciting period in film 1929-1945 Analyzes many of the seminal films from the period from The Wizard of Oz to Grand Hotel to Gone with the Wind considering the impact they had then and still have today Tackles the shaping forces of the period the business practices of the industry technological developments censorship restraints narrative strategies evolution of genres and the stars and the star system Explores the major social political economic and cultural events that helped to shape contemporary commercial cinema as well as other leisure activities that influenced Hollywood production including radio vaudeville theatre and fiction Written in a jargon free lively style and features a number of illustrations throughout the text

Ideology And

Cinematography In Hollywood: 1930-1939 Michael Cormack, 1993-11-26 Hollywood films of the 1930s are frequently treated as if they all conformed to one cinematographic style This book shows that this was not the case and describes the various stylistic changes in the use of the camera and lighting which took place during the decade These changes did not of course occur in a vacuum and the ideological conditions in which the films were made is shown to be a crucial factor in explaining these changes
