Handbook of Accessible Communication Christiane Maaß, Isabel Rink, 2024-07-02 Accessible communication comprises all measures employed to reduce communication barriers in various situations and fields of activity Disabilities illnesses different educational opportunities and or major life events can result in vastly different requirements in terms of how texts or messages must be prepared in order to meet the individual needs and access conditions of the recipients of accessible communication This handbook examines and critically reflects accessible communication in its interdisciplinary breadth Current findings proposed solutions and research desiderata are juxtaposed with reports from practitioners and users who provide insights into how they deal with accessible communication and highlight current and future requirements and problems

Pastoral Care and Community in Late Medieval Germany Deeana Copeland Klepper, 2022-12-15 Pastoral Care and Community in Late Medieval Germany explores how local religious culture was constructed in medieval European Christian society through close study of a set of neglected late fourteenth century manuscripts The Mirror of Priests is a pastoral work written by Albert an Augustinian canon from the Bavarian market town of Diessen to guide local priests in their work with parishioners Multiple versions of the text in Albert s own hand survive and by comparing them Deeana Copeland Klepper shows how ostensibly universal religious ideals and laws were adapted interpreted and repurposed by those given responsibility to implement them thereby crafting distinctive local expressions of Christianity The vision of Christian community that emerges from Albert s pastoral guide is one in which the messiness of ordinary life is evident Albert s imagined parish was marked out by geographic and legal boundaries property and jurisdictional rights tithes and sacramental responsibility as well as symbolic realities By situating the Mirror of Priests within Albert s physical and conceptual spaces Klepper affirms the centrality of the parish and its community for those living under the rubric of Christianity especially outside of large cities Pivoting between the materiality of texts and the sociocultural contexts of an overlooked manuscript tradition Pastoral Care and Community in Late Medieval Germany offers fresh insights into the role of parish priests the pastoral manual genre and late medieval religious life

Knowledge Making Barbara Brookes, James Dunk, 2020-11-25 Paper has been the material of bureaucracy and paperwork performs functions of order control and surveillance Knowledge Making Historians Archives and Bureaucracy explores how those functions transform over time allowing private challenges to the public narratives created by institutions and governments Paperwork and bureaucratic systems have determined what we know about the past It seems that now as the digital is overtaking paper though mirroring its forms historians are able to see the significance of the materiality of paper and its role in knowledge making because it is no longer taken for granted The contributors to this volume discuss the ways in which public and private institutions asylums hospitals and armies developed bureaucratic systems which have determined the parameters of our access to the past The authors present case studies of paperwork in different national contexts which engage with themes of privacy and public accountability the beginning of record keeping practices and their ends both in the sense of their purposes and in what happens to paper after the work has finished including preservation and curation in repositories of various kinds through to the place of paper and paperwork in a paperless world The chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue of Rethinking History The Journal of Theory and Practice Annual Statistical Report Ohio.
