Climbing Mountains Sarabjit Parmar, 2014      Climbing Mountains Sarabjit Parmar, 2014-10-27 When Sarabjit Parmar signed up for a Creative Writing and Media Writing degree course at the University of Derby she knew it wouldn't be easy But she had no real idea of the size of the mountain she was about to climb Enormous odds indeed were stacked against her Luckily she decided to keep a detailed diary from the moment she rolled her wheelchair into her very first lecture and that diary now tells the honest day to day story of the challenges she faced and overcame It's an inspiring tale Sarabjit Sarbs to family and friends has been dealing with a muscle wasting condition known as Facioscapulohumeral Muscular Dystrophy since birth She ran and played normally as a young child but has been in a wheelchair since her early teens She cannot smile or frown And she has a speech impairment A wheelchair accessible taxi took her the 30 miles to university on that first day and Sarbs still remembers quaking with fear and anxiety as she joined the other newcomers How on earth was this venture going to work out The diary Climbing Mountains tells exactly how it worked out Good days bad days boring days happy days sad days Thousands of words written and re-written Getting slightly tipsy in the Student Union bar the fear of being stuck in the lift the gazing out of classroom windows weeping a few tears during the final lecture Graduation drawing ever nearer time alternately dragging or slipping past like lightning And finally the Big Day when dad drove to the university with mum one brother and one sister for the degree ceremony It was over at last The degree was hers alone but perhaps her ultimate accomplishment was that she had inspired countless fellow students who had been with her on her three year journey
