Community Guidelines Strikes And Spares:

Making Cultures of Solidarity Diarmaid Kelliher, 2021-05-10 This book combines radical history critical geography and political theory in an innovative history of the solidarity campaign in London during the 1984 5 miners strike Thousands of people collected food and money joined picket lines and demonstrations organised meetings travelled to mining areas and hosted coalfield activists in their homes during the strike The support campaign encompassed longstanding elements of the British labour movement as well as autonomously organised Black lesbian and gay and feminist support groups This book shows how the solidarity of 1984 5 was rooted in the development of mutual relationships of support between the coalfields and the capital since the late 1960s It argues that a culture of solidarity was developed through industrial and political struggles that brought together diverse activists from mining communities and London The book also takes the story forward exploring the aftermath of the miners strike and the complex legacies of the support movement up to the present day This rich history provides a compelling example of how solidarity can cross geographical and social boundaries This book is essential reading for students scholars and activists with an interest in left wing politics and history

A Fine Gray Rain: In the Shadow of Mount Pinatubo Robert Reynolds, 2016-04-23 In 1991 the Philippines Mt Pinatubo near Clark Air Base awoke after 500 years dormancy Base officials evacuated non essential personnel to Subic Bay Navy Base Soon the first eruption sent ash and gas towering into the sky A climactic explosion blew the top off the mountain Day turned into midnight as thick ash blocked the sun and pumice and rock rained down Aircraft hangars warehouses and buildings collapsed Earthquakes repeatedly rattled the area Simultaneously typhoon Yunya blew in causing muddy lahars to flood the countryside and sweep away bridges and homes Volcanic ash buried parts of the base Similar devastation occurred miles away at the Navy base Military personnel and their families departed the devastated island via ships However some remained to conduct salvage operations before relinquishing the base It was the 2nd largest volcanic eruption of the century This is the exhilarating story leading up to this catastrophic event
