Bounding Greed René O. Guillaume, Edna Martinez, 2023-03-01 Building on the work of Guillaume 2021 the collection of autoethnographies and testimonios in this book highlight positive coping mechanisms strategies and healthy boundaries that early middle and late career Faculty of Color at comprehensive universities have deployed to negotiate home and work As beautifully stated by Aerial A Ashlee whose story you will find in chapter two It is not a formula a blueprint to copy or a recipe to repeat however we hope that the stories about relying on faith family mentors culture and community presented in the following chapters will support Faculty of Color in their own well being and work life integration efforts Certainly work life balance or integration is not the solution to deeply entrenched systemic issues in higher education however research in the area of work life balance integration has affirmed the need for postsecondary institutions to place significant importance on the topic of work life in particular the need for increased support at both the department and institutional levels Denson et al 2018 Thus it is also our hope that this book will serve as a resource for educational leaders in the area of faculty development as well as academic administrators whose role is to recruit retain and evaluate Faculty of Color at comprehensive universities congressional inertia and furious opposition from some the DREAM Act has yet to be passed But recently this young generation has begun organizing and with their rallying cry Undocumented Unapologetic and Unafraid they are the newest face of the human rights movement In Dreamers Eileen Truax illuminates the stories of these men and women who are living proof of a complex and sometimes hidden political reality that calls into question what it truly means to be American
