Empowered Educators in Australia Dion Burns, Ann McIntyre, 2017-02-22 BEST PRACTICES FROM AUSTRALIA'S HIGH PERFORMING SCHOOL SYSTEMS Empowered Educators in Australia is one volume in a series that explores how high performing educational systems from around the world achieve strong results The anchor book Empowered Educators How High Performing Systems Shape Teaching Quality Around the World is written by Linda Darling Hammond and colleagues with contributions from the authors of this volume The authors of Empowered Educators in Australia take an in depth look at the policies and practices surrounding teaching quality in two different states New South Wales NSW and Victoria NSW offers significant support for government schools in areas such as staffing and teacher professional development Victoria operates a highly devolved school system Each provides a contrasting view of how federal and state policies combine to shape learning outcomes for students in Australia The interplay between state and federal policy characterizes an intriguing centralizing decentralization Initiatives to create national curricular teaching and teacher education standards all sit in balanced tension with a movement towards greater devolution of authority to schools Together the NSW and Victoria case studies provide insights into policies that can support high quality teaching in a federal education system Australia's current educational reforms place increasing emphasis on issues of teaching quality reshaping teaching as a standards based evidence informed profession and one that seeks to foster collegiality and professional exchange These reforms encompass many aspects of a system that supports teaching quality and highlight the way teachers are trained how they are inducted into the teaching profession and supported with mentors the professional learning they receive how they are appraised on their work and the career pathways for teachers

Enquiry and Project Based Learning David Leat, 2017-04-21 Many teachers schools parents and community organisations feel that standards education is not serving us well It has proved ineffective at preparing many students for work higher education and general wellbeing nor does it keep students engaged and intrinsically motivated capable of sustaining interest in education and learning There is a suppressed desire to transform educational outcomes and enquiry based learning EBL and project based learning PBL are the prime candidates for achieving such a goal EBL is education that is driven by curiosity questions and problem solving with the capacity to produce results that are equal to or better than standard outcomes This new text provides a critical examination of EBL and PBL by exploring a wide range of international exemplars and considering the benefits barriers and contradictions generated by the efforts of teachers and schools Focusing on analytical frameworks and socio cultural theory areas covered include enquiry and society what EPBL is learning through enquiry challenges for schools and teachers student outcomes and assessment teacher learning curriculum development Enquiry and Project Based Learning offers analytical frameworks and practical guidance for students teachers and all those interested in enquiry based learning as well as presenting a balanced purposeful and motivating alternative to mainstream educational practice

Education for Inclusion and Diversity Adrian

Ashman,2014-08-01 For special education courses in schools of early childhood primary and secondary education Education for Inclusion and Diversity 5e continues to build on the concept of inclusive curriculum and the diversity of learning needs This Australian text gives students a broad understanding of the principles of inclusive education and the ways in which teachers can accommodate the differing learning needs of their students It has been written by experts in the field of inclusion and special needs education with the particular aim of teaching students how to apply the ideas that have been presented in each chapter

Personalising Learning in Open-Plan Schools Vaughan Prain,Peter Cox,Craig Deed,Debra Edwards,Cathleen Farrelly,Mary Keeffe,Valerie Lovejoy,Lucy Mow,Peter Sellings,Bruce Waldrip,2015-11-03 How can widely acknowledged challenges facing regional secondary schools with high concentrations of low SES students ineffectual curricula and poor levels of student engagement attendance and wellbeing be addressed In this book we report on key outcomes of the Bendigo Education Plan that aimed to improve the academic attainment and wellbeing of 3000 regional secondary students This Plan entailed rebuilding four Years 7 10 colleges and developing a differentiated and personalised curriculum with teachers team teaching in open plan settings We analyse how and why teachers and students adapted to these new practices We focus on both generic changes in the schools around the use of ICTs and the organisation of the curriculum and on specific approaches to teaching and learning in English mathematics science social studies and studio arts This book provides research based guidelines on how the curriculum can be renewed and enacted effectively in these and like schools In analysing a large scale attempt to address the challenge of making learning personalised and meaningful for this cohort of students our book addresses larger questions about quality secondary curriculum and successful teacher professional learning support

Beginning Teachers Michael Crowhurst,2015-04-27 In this collection of narratives beginning teachers describe and reflect on critical incidents classes that didn t quite go to plan These experiences are recalled in a general way and all names and locations are fictionalized Each narrative while situated in a classroom focuses on the experience of the teacher author and sheds light on their thinking as they work through the complex event they are remembering Beginning teachers then imagine how they might approach a similar situation in the future While developing reflective practice techniques can support and enhance individual practice when these accounts are shared with others there is some scope for enhancing educative experiences generally There is a long tradition of reflective practice writing in education and this small workbook aims to make a contribution to this genre Each reflective practitioner narrative is followed with an invitation to discussion section and periodically through the workbook sideline methodologies are introduced that readers can use to support further analysis The beginning teacher narratives are authentic complex and alive and as a consequence they will generate lively discussion in tutorial spaces with beginning teachers The materials are informed by various strands of poststructural and critical theory and therefore they are intended to reflect a dialogic stance rather than signpost specific directions

Townsend,Anne Quill,2012-01-01 Text Types a writing guide for students provides a clear reference tool for students teachers and parents to understand 30 different types of written texts both literary and factual This larger format Second Edition has been updated and expanded in the variety of text types and examples included Examples presented and analysed include many electronic texts According to the Australian Curriculum English students in years 7 to 10 are expected to plan draft and publish imaginative informative and persuasive texts using effective vocabulary and language features appropriate for the writer's purpose and the audience These texts may take a variety of formats for example a an everyday explanatory text a a media report a a literary text a a point of view or an argument expressed in a letter to the editor or a debate etc Text Types A writing guide for students Second Edition provides students with examples of all of these texts and more together with clear directions about how to write each one The book aims to provide the scaffolding and modelling necessary for the development of writing skills It provides teachers parents and students with a unique tool to improve writing skills and is suitable for use by students in midprimary to mid secondary school Striving to Improve Series: Writing Book 1 Lindsay

Marsh,2018-03-01 The Striving to Improve Series targets students who for whatever reason are struggling to keep up with their peers The activities in the books are designed to prevent students from regressing any further at school The tasks are based on a modified curriculum so that students can work at their own pace and without constant supervision from the teacher The children who you teach may be struggling with their school work because they have been diagnosed with learning difficulties such as ADHD or dyslexia They may be struggling because of social factors which have resulted in them missing a lot of school Whatever the reason this book Writing 1 will help students begin to write more clearly accurately and confidently Activities in this book link to the Australian Curriculum for Years 5 and 6 so children feel that what is being asked of them is actually achievable To make the tasks more manageable they have been broken down into small parts which gives each student the opportunity to process one idea at a time Time limits have been either abandoned or made flexible for students so success becomes a habit rather than a rarity Scribbles, Signs and Stories Lynn Darkin, Marion Meiers, Kathy Nolan, 2005 This book is a collection of writing samples from Australian primary school students who have taken part in the ACER Longitudinal Literacy and Numeracy Study since 1999 Irwin Writing Project Rich, 1993-01-01 Published
