Autobiography Keller Paul Madere in Words And Pictures Keller P. Madere, 2014-11-06 In the living room were gathered my four sisters Elise Jeanette Nita Rosemary and me Keller Paul Madere along with my wife Carolyn and Charles Stalfort Nita's husband After a lot of chit chat back and forth reminiscing about old family stories and happenings Charles or Chuck as we know him brought out his tape recorder Quizzically he posed this simple question What can you tell me about Papa He was referring to our father Ernest Hubert Madere With feelings of unified dismay none of the five of us were able to provide Chuck with any new information about Papa other than what he already knew Consequently in order for the children of Carolyn and me namely Joni Colin and Lana to have some inkling regarding where I lived what I did and get a glimpse into my psyche before they were born and then grew up knowing me this tome will provide some insight Our children will have historical and genealogical information concerning their ancestry in words pictures and other relative and associated odds and ends Nowadays family members tend to get scattered hither and yon Children often get permanently displaced regarding their backgrounds and family records Items like birth certificates report cards names of first and second cousins aunts uncles close friends associates and similar pertinent items gets lost in the shuffle as time steadily marches on Hopefully this ponderous volume will soothe many misgivings our children may have about who they are the backgrounds of their ancestors and precisely where they came from Amen

14th Station Keller Madere, 2014-08-29 The 14th Station is a novel about a young lady named Mary Farwell originally from New Orleans Louisiana who decided that living on a plantation out in the country would be an ideal situation for her Consequently she visited Nora and Thomas Becnel living on Tree Alley Plantation near the small town of Hahnville Louisiana Mary showed the Becnells a letter from her father indicating he desired for them to allow Mary to live with them for an unspecified period of time so she could get adjusted to living on a plantation

The Story of My Life Helen Keller, Professor of Public Law European Law and International Law Helen Keller, 2014-09-04 To say Helen Keller is one of the most unique figures in American history would be an understatement As a young child Helen lost both her vision and hearing leaving her deafblind an almost hopelessly debilitating condition that left her literally trapped unable to communicate with anyone As she would later write My life was without past or future death the pessimist would say a consummation devoutly to be wished Nobody would have blamed her for being hopelessly frustrated and imprisoned by her disabilities in fact that was to be expected When her famous teacher Anne Sullivan brought Helen a doll and tried to teach her a few words by spelling them into her hand the child became so frustrated that she broke the doll As every American now knows Helen eventually overcame the frustration and used unimaginable perseverance to overcome her disability With Sullivan's help and the sense of touch Helen eventually broke through and learned to communicate Helen later recalled that after Sullivan put one of her hands in water and spelled water on the other hand I stood still my whole attention fixed upon the motions of her fingers Suddenly I felt a misty consciousness as of something forgotten a thrill of returning thought and somehow the mystery of language was revealed to me Helen s story would have been remarkable enough if it had ended simply with her ability to communicate with the outside world but I had now the key to all language and I was eager to learn to use it With unbridled ambition Helen became the first deafblind individual to earn a bachelor s degree from a college published her own autobiography when she was just 22 and in the early 20th century became famous across the world as both an author and speaker Naturally Helen was a walking embodiment and advocate for people with disabilities both the blind and deaf but she was just as interested in other social and political causes eventually becoming one of the most outspoken figures of her time Those who were inspired by her story were surprised that she was willing to voice what they believed were radical beliefs on behalf of causes like women s suffrage pacifism and socialism Helen also added actions to her words founding both the Helen Keller International organization for research in vision health and nutrition and helping found the American Civil Liberties Union
