Business Studies Grade 1 November 2013 Paper:

Evaluation as a Tool for Research, Learning and Making Things Better Satu Kalliola, 2014-04-11 This book is one of the first of its kind to bring together a variety of perspectives on evaluation from a multidisciplinary international perspective The book with its content derived from leading experts in their chosen fields of practice illustrates the potential of evaluation to demonstrate the impact and efficiency of social interventions Examples are given of comparative effectiveness research realist evaluation and systematic reviews as well as of holistic and authentic evaluation the use of advisory groups and qualitative needs assessment The volume also presents some special evaluation tools used by national governments and which are used to influence a variety of professional practices The key features of the book are An international panel of experts sharing the expertise in evaluation Multiple perspectives on evaluation theory methodology and practices articulated through a range of interdisciplinary perspectives A primary focus on client patient and more generally human centredness Practical examples of contrasting evaluation methods in use Helpful tips and advice offered throughout The book is compiled from the work of the plenary speakers plenary panel and selected workshop presentations at the 8th International Conference on Evaluation for Practice Eval2012 held in Finland in 2012 The contributors come from Australia Brazil Finland Ireland Italy Norway the Republic of Korea the UK and the USA In line with the traditions of the conference series some contributions here are joint endeavours from academics and practitioners Evaluation as a Tool for Research Learning and Making Things Better is recommended for both academics and practitioners and will be useful for individual researchers researcher communities and students who are interested in and conduct evaluation research in various contexts including as part of service development programs and for public and private organizations which pursue good service quality with an impact Global Human Resource Development Thomas Garavan, Alma McCarthy, Michael Morley, 2016-02-05 Drawing on contributions from leading academics in the field this volume within the Routledge Series in Human Resource Development specifically focuses on Global Human Resource Development HRD Specifically the volume provides an overview of 17 regions 85 countries and includes one emerging market grouping CIVETS This book examines the role of the state in HRD the relationship between HRD and the level of economic development in the country or region the influence of foreign direct investment within the country or region and firm level HRD practices within countries or regions Global Human Resource Development analyzes HRD from institutional and cross cultural perspectives making it possible for the first time to analyze trends across countries and regions and to draw conclusions about the value of institutional and cross cultural perspectives in the HRD context There is currently no book on the market that conceptualizes the discipline of global HRD in this way making this a definitive book on HRD across the globe of particular interest to researchers and reflective practitioners University Trends Jonathan Coulson, Paul Roberts, Isabelle Taylor, 2014-09-15 A university campus is a place with special resonance conjuring images of cloistered quadrangles and wood panelled libraries often echoing centuries of scholarly tradition And yet it is also a place of cutting edge science interactive learning youth vibrancy and energy It is this dual nature which makes the physical environment of a university so dynamic as well as a highly challenging landscape to design and manage successfully Today the scale of the pressures and the rate of change facing higher education institutions are greater than ever Squeezed public spending rising tuition fees and the growing education ambitions of developing nations are set against a backdrop of rapid technological progress and changing pedagogies What are the repercussions for the physical realities of university planning and architecture And how are university campuses adapting to contend with these pressures University Trends introduces the most significant widespread and thought provoking trends in campus design today Part 1 identifies current trends such as starchitecture large scale campus extensions adaptive re use and international branch campuses Part 2 profiles each trend via highly illustrated global case studies of well publicised as well as lesser known projects The essential guide to current and future trends in campus design Guide to U.S. Economic Policy Robert E. Wright, Thomas W. Zeiler, 2014-06-30 Guide to U S Economic Policy shows students and researchers how issues and actions are translated into public policies for resolving economic problems like the Great Recession or managing economic conflict like the left right ideological split over the role of government regulation in markets Taking an interdisciplinary approach the guide highlights decision making cycles requiring the cooperation of government business and an informed citizenry to achieve a comprehensive approach to a successful growth oriented economic policy Through 30 topical operational and relational essays the book addresses the development of U S economic policies from the colonial period to today the federal agencies and public and private organizations that influence and administer economic policies the challenges of balancing economic development with environmental and social goals and the role of the U S in international organizations such as the IMF and WTO Key Features 30 essays by experts in the field investigate the fundamental economic political social and process initiatives that drive policy decisions affecting the nation s economic stability and success Essential themes traced throughout the chapters include scarcity wealth creation theories of economic growth and macroeconomic management controlling inflation and unemployment poverty the role of government agencies and regulations to police markets Congress vs the president investment policies economic indicators the balance of trade and the immediate and long term costs associated with economic policy alternatives A glossary of key economic terms and events a summary of bureaus and agencies charged with economic policy decisions a master bibliography and a thorough index appear at the back of the book This must have reference for students and researchers is suitable for academic public high school government and professional libraries Handbook of Research on Higher Education in the MENA Region: Policy and Practice Baporikar, Neeta, 2014-06-30 This book examines the need for a paradigm shift in the area of post secondary education and innovation in the emerging yet relatively understudied MENA region Provided by publisher Risk, Ruin and Survival Ricardas Zitikis, Jiandong Ren, Kristina Sendova, 2020-04-02 Developing techniques for assessing various risks and calculating probabilities of ruin and survival are exciting topics for mathematically inclined academics For practicing actuaries and financial engineers the resulting insights have provided enormous opportunities but also created serious challenges to overcome thus facilitating closer cooperation between industries and academic institutions In this book several renown researchers with extensive interdisciplinary research experiences share their thoughts that in one way or another contribute to the betterment of practice and theory of decision making under uncertainty Behavioral cultural mathematical and statistical aspects of risk assessment and modelling have been explored and have been often illustrated using real and simulated data Topics range from financial and insurance risks to security type risks from one dimensional to multi and even infinite dimensional risks The articles in the book were written with a broad audience in mind and should provide enjoyable reading for those with university level degrees and or those who have studied for accreditation by various actuarial and financial societies

Human Development Report 2013 United Nations Development Programme,2013 The pace of transformations around the world is extraordinarily swift and the consequences will be profound The rapid emergence of the Global South will transform 21st century economics and politics in ways at least as fundamental as those witnessed in the wars and technological revolutions of the 20th century This report seeks to identify how the dynamics of power voice and wealth in the world are changing

Rankings and the Reshaping of Higher Education Ellen Hazelkorn,2015-03-23 University rankings have gained popularity around the world and are now a significant factor shaping reputation This second edition updates Ellen Hazelkorn s first comprehensive study of rankings from a global perspective drawing in new original research and extensive analysis It is essential reading for policymakers managers and scholars

Rare Earth Frontiers Julie M. Klinger,2018-01-15 Rare Earth Frontiers is a work of human geography that serves to demystify the powerful elements that make possible the miniaturization of electronics green energy and medical technologies and essential telecommunications and defense systems Julie Michelle Klinger draws attention to the fact that the rare earths we rely on most are as common as copper or lead and this means the implications of their extraction are global Klinger excavates the rich historical origins and ongoing ramifications of the quest to mine rare earths in ever more impossible places Klinger writes about the devastating damage to lives and the environment caused by the exploitation of rare earths She demonstrates in human terms how scarcity myths have been conscripted into diverse geopolitical campaigns that use rare earth mining as a pretext to capture spaces that have historically fallen beyond the grasp of centralized power These include legally and logistically forbidding locations in the Amazon Greenland and Afghanistan and on the Moon Drawing on ethnographic archival and interview data gathered in local languages and offering possible solutions to the problems it documents this book examines the production of the rare earth frontier as a place a concept and a zone of contestation sacrifice and transformation
