Christian Maturity A Spirituality For Adult Catholics:

Christian Maturity Pierre-Andre Liege, Thomas C. Donlan, Charles E. Bouchard, 2014-12-10 Written in the late 1950s this book was one of the first serious attempts to integrate psychology and the study of human development into spirituality and morality Fr Liege uses the thought of St Thomas especially his emphasis on the virtues to show how true holiness can only occur in conjunction with human maturity

Sacred Fire Ronald Rolheiser, 2014-03-11 When one reaches the highest degree of human maturity one has only one question left How can I be helpful

TERESA OF VILA Beloved author Ronald Rolheiser continues his search for an accessible and penetrating Christian spirituality in this highly anticipated follow up to the contemporary classic The Holy Longing With his trademark acuity wit and thoughtfulness Rolheiser shows how identifying and embracing discipleship will lead to new heights of spiritual awareness and maturity In this new book Rolheiser takes us on a journey through the dark night of the senses and of the spirit Here we experience the full gamut of human life pleasure and fervor disillusionment and boredom But as Rolheiser explains when we embrace the struggle and yearning to know God we can experience too a profound re understanding to our daily lives What lies beyond the essentials the basics Rolheiser writes Where do we go once some of the basic questions in our lives have been answered or at least brought to enough peace that our focus can shift away from ourselves to others Where do we go once the basic questions in our lives are no longer the restless questions of youthful insecurity and loneliness Who am I Who loves me How will my life turn out Where do we go once the basic question in life becomes How can I give my life away more purely and more meaningfully How do I live beyond my own heartaches headaches and obsessions so as to help make other peoples lives more meaningful The intent of this book is to try to address exactly those questions How can we live less self centered more mature lives What constitutes deep maturity and how do we reach that place And not unimportantly what constitutes a more adult Christian discipleship What constitutes a truly mature following of Jesus As the poet Rainer Maria Rilke suggests Live the questions now In Sacred Fire Rolheiser s deeply affecting prose urges us on in pursuit of the most holy of all passions a deep and lasting intimacy with God

Spiritual Maturity Leslie Reynolds, 2001-10-15 Spiritual Maturity The Whole Elephant provides a look at spiritual maturity for both spiritual seekers and the spiritually religiously committed It provides a glimpse of the whole elephant to use a term based on the Hindu metaphor of the blind men and the elephant It contains widely diverse answers to ten defining questions about spiritual maturity These questions include the characteristics of spiritual maturity the relationship to psychological and moral maturity and to social action and the culture stages to and which organizations support attainment alone or in community how to support others on the path and where you are The answers are given by thirty spiritual leaders not leaders of the national or academic variety but leaders of the shoe leather variety clergymen Catholic Protestant Jewish and New Age university professors and a psychotherapist monks and sisters a Native American followers of Islam Hindu and Buddhist practices members of 12 Step programs and a human development trainer

an African American Sufi and black Baptist deacon It is spiritual maturity made accessible to everyone It closes with the reflections of a university professor after viewing the Holocaust Museum providing a glimpse of the possible cost of holding on so rigidly to our specific understanding of who God is and his possible plan for us Imagine a dialogue among people who hold very different points of view The group consists of a Bible church pastor a law school professor a member of Alcoholics Anonymous the abbot of a Zen monastery a Roman Catholic sister who is an instructor in Spiritual Direction a Baptist worship leader and a Methodist pastor Imagine two of them as reluctant participants one the member of Alcoholics Anonymous because he is not exactly a fan of organized religion the second is the Bible pastor who appeared suspicious of mingling with other leaders of non Bible based religions The dialogue follows Always the teacher the law professor begins by giving his definition of spiritual maturity Coming of age in the spirit While everyone nods wisely in agreement they then realize that they all have differing definitions of spirit and even of coming of age The Methodist pastor picks up the thread The person would have an awareness of the divine in life They would have a sense in which they would understand that which we call God and feel some connectedness and relatedness to that God Looking around for agreement he continues They would be able to utilize the rites and rituals of their faith in an effective manner with as little sense of magic or mere wish fulfillment as possible They would be able to give witness to that in a variety of ways whatever is appropriate that comes with their setting He points out aware of the diversity of the setting that what he was saying could be taken in the broadest possible sense This application would apply to a Buddhist or a Muslim as well as a Christian Afraid that the conversation might digress the Baptist worship leader enters the conversation to qualify Its not something we can produce Its Christ likeness produced inside us through friendship with the triune God He explains that what spiritual maturity means to the Christian is Holy Spirit maturity He elaborates he means Holy Spirit produced maturity Nodding in agreement the Buddhist abbot says I think there is a certain spiritual maturity that comes with people who are really into any spiritual practice deep into whatever spiritual practice They seem to be open to all others seem to have respect for one another That would be wonderful if we all had that openness to one anothers spiritualities I encountered my own prejudice All human beings have particular biases beliefs that we hold to be true whether we are aware of them or not One question I asked rather awkwardly of Psychology and Catholicism Robert Kugelman, 2011-05-26 In this study of psychology and Catholicism Kugelman aims to provide clarity in an area filled with emotion and opinion From the beginnings of modern psychology to the mid 1960s this complicated relationship between science and religion is methodically investigated Conflicts such as the boundary of person versus soul contested between psychology and the Church are debated thoroughly Kugelman goes on to examine topics such as the role of the subconscious in explaining spiritualism and miracles psychoanalysis and the sacrament of confession myth and symbol in psychology and religious experience cognition and will in psychology and in religious life humanistic psychology as a spiritual movement This fascinating study will be of great interest to scholars and students of both psychology and religious studies but will also appeal to all of those who have an interest in the way modern science and traditional religion coexist in our ever changing society Formation and Development for Catholic School Leaders: The principal as spiritual leader Maria J.
