

Christmas speech in business context

Honoured guests,

This is really a special privilege to be allowed to address you now that the feast days of Christmas are approaching. This is the more so because, since my very earliest recollections, I have roamed about the fascinating rooms of this laboratory and used to play there. How exciting they were, these strange devices and odd objects. Furthermore I have relished, for nearly my whole life, the little nuts analyzed by you and roasted by myself. In addition I got even more acquainted with the inside of this lab as a result of holiday work. And in this way I got to know many of you even better. I myself live over a laboratory, together with three nice fellows who work there, which enables me to go on sniffing the odour and inhaling the atmosphere.

Fortunately the family will not entirely sever the bonds with the company one will go on following the developments with every possible involvement and concern.

Well, what would I like to tell you in this Christmas speech? There is no need to worry on that point, because, although I am a minister, I will not speak to you in a moralizing way this afternoon.
