Challenging the Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) Movement Ronnie Fraser, Lola Fraser, 2023-02-13 Challenging the Boycott Divestment and Sanctions BDS Movement focuses on the efforts to oppose antisemitism the academic boycott and the BDS movement. The State of Israel has faced many threats most of them military since it was established in 1948 but the threat posed by the NGO forum at the United Nations World Conference against Racism in Durban South Africa in August 2001 was different. The forum unleashed the new antisemitism which targeted the State of Israel as well as a non violent civil society based campaign based on the South African anti apartheid campaign of the 1980s which was to form the basis of the international Boycott Divestment and Sanctions BDS movement directed at the State of Israel. Featuring case studies from the United States Great Britain Israel and South Africa each chapter of this wide ranging volume discusses examples of opposition to the divisive BDS campaign and the proposed academic boycott of Israel over the last two decades including the fight for formal recognition of the new antisemitism by governments and international bodies and the use of a variety of legal measures. The rise of antisemitism within academia and wider society is also examined. This book will be vital reading for students scholars and activists with an interest in social movements Israel and Middle East politics and history.

The Pro-Israel Lobby in Europe Elvira King, 2016-03-02 The activities of pro Israel pressure groups and lobbyists in the US are well known. But the pro Israel lobby in Europe is less prominent in both academic and media accounts. In a unique account Elvira King identifies the pro Israeli groups which attempt to influence policy makers and implementers in the EU specifically examining Christian Zionist groups. Through a detailed study of the European

Coalition for Israel ECI the only Christian Zionist lobby in Brussels Elvira King analyses whether and how a religious group can and can fail to influence decision makers in the EU By exploring the context of European relations with Israel as well as the mechanisms through which pressure groups are able to influence EU wide policies King offers an analysis which demonstrates how the EU can be a site where religion and politics meet rather than just being a secular institution It therefore contains vital primary research for both those interested in the pro Israel lobby as well as those examining the role of religion in politics more generally

Cracks in the Wall Ben White, 2018-05-20 After decades of occupation and creeping annexation the situation on the ground in Palestine Israel can only be described as a system of apartheid Peace efforts have failed because of one inconvenient truth the Israeli maximum on offer does not meet the Palestinian minimum or the standards of international law But while the situation on the ground is bleak Ben White argues that there are widening cracks in Israel s traditional pillars of support Opposition to Israeli policies and even critiques of Zionism are growing in Jewish communities as well as amongst Western progressives The election of Donald Trump has served as a catalyst for these processes including the transformation of Israel from a partisan issue into one that divides the US establishment Meanwhile the Palestinian led boycott campaign is gathering momentum prompting a desperate backlash by Israel and its allies With sharp analysis Ben White says now is the time to plot a course that avoids the mistakes of the past a way forward beyond apartheid in Palestine The solution is not partition and ethnic separation but equality and self determination for all
