Georgia Boys with Stonewall Jackson Aurelia Austin, 2010-03-01 Published in 1967 the letters in this volume reveal the experiences of four Georgia soldiers who served in Company H of the Eleventh Regiment Georgia Volunteers under Stonewall Jackson Most of the letters were written by James Thomas Thompson a young farmer from Walton County During the two years he served Thompson seems to have never lost his enthusiasm for the soldier s life His letters are full of admiration for his offi cers comments about his duties requests for clothing accounts of marching advice to his father about managing the plantation and indications of his religious faith Other letters were written by Kittrell Warren Captain Matthew Talbot Nunnally and William Laseter From their correspondence emerges a vivid description of a soldier s daily life in the Civil War Austin s historical narrative provides the reader with a context for the events discussed American Holy Days, Second Edition Boardman W. Kathan, 2023-11-30 Our national holidays have been trivialized by merchandising consumerism and long weekends What do you know about the origins of the national holidays of the United States Boardman Kathan presents the persons and events that each of our holy days commemorates In so doing he explores the shaping of

American history and identity revealing often misunderstood parts of our national story from a new approach Each chapter looks at the many books and research written about the events commemorated by these holidays showing their relevance for today Kathan includes discussion of the spiritual or religious dimensions of these national observances pointing out that although the United States was not founded as a Christian nation on biblical principles people throughout American history have perceived a divine guidance or what George Washington called providential care This book reflects back on the original meaning of these days and seeks to inspire renewed forms of celebration commemoration and observance Celebrating patriotic holidays can bring us together as a people especially in times of stress and conflict Schools religious institutions patriotic organizations readers interested in history in short the general public will find this an enjoyable aid for recalling our history reclaiming our values and traditions and restoring a sense of community
