Battle Lomba Mechanized Commanders:

20 Battles Evert Kleynhans, David Brock Katz, 2023-07-28 Favours manoeuvre over attrition and often punching above their weight South African soldiers have become known for their tenacity dash and ability to defy the odds Their unique directive command style has also helped them to excel in defining battles and operations from the campaign in German South West Africa in 1915 to the cross border operations in Angola during the Border War In 20 Battles military historians Evert Kleynhans and David Brock Katz investigate the evolution of South Africa's armed forces over a century from 1913 to 2013 They track the evolution of the doctrine and structure of the defence force uncovering historical continuity and the lessons learned from past battles and operations What is clear is that when South African soldiers have the freedom to operate according to their manoeuvre doctrine as they had in East Africa in 1916 and southern Ethiopia in 1941 they can achieve stunning results But when hemmed in by rigid doctrine and a top down command style as at Delville Wood in 1916 and Tobruk in 1942 the results can be tragic 20 Battles combines both battlefield drama and crisp analysis and in the process provides a much needed perspective on the South African way of war War of Intervention in Angola Adrien Fontanellaz, Tom Cooper, José Augusto Matos, 2023-06-30 Through late 1987 and early 1988 the battlefields of southern Angola moved ever further away from the border with South West Africa Namibia until the showdown between the Soviet and Cuban supported government in Luanda and South African supported insurgency of UNITA culminated in the controversial and still much disputed Battle of Cuito Cuanavale During this period Angolan and Cuban airpower slowly grew to a point where it outmatched the SAAF in turn limiting the freedom of movement of the SADF and UNITA ground forces and reducing their operations to attritional battles with little chance of achieving major victories on terms acceptable to the government in Pretoria As the changing political climate between East and West and in Africa began to bring about an end to the South African intervention in Angola and the occupation of South West Africa Namibia the government of Angola was able to switch its attentions to dealing with UNITA Volume 5 of War of Intervention in Angola examines in detail this final period of Cuban involvement in the long and tragic civil war that ruined Angola between 1975 and 1992 While the emphasis is upon the operations of the Angolan and Cuban air forces it also details how these impacted upon the ground operations of all parties This volume is richly illustrated with original photographs of the forces involved specially commissioned maps of the ground operations and a range of full color artworks Historical Dictionary of Angola W. Martin James, 2018-03-01 Angola slowly recovering from a twenty seven year civil war is becoming a regional super power in southern Africa This rise can be attributed to oil diamonds a battle tested armed forces and a political system that is dominated by one party the Movimento Popular de Libertação de Angola the Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola MPLA Problems remain to be solved The vast wealth is in the control of the elite while the vast majority of the people live on less than two dollars per day Corruption is rife the health and education system in shambles landmines remain a festering problem and the opposition is intimidated and split into various factions President Eduardo dos Santos who has ruled Angola for almost thirty eight years has opted not to run for re election in the August 2017 elections Instead his hand picked successor Jo o Louren o was elected president Interestingly dos Santos has not surrendered his presidency of the party This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Angola contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Angola Battle on the Lomba 1987

David Mannall, 2014-11-19 A South African national serviceman recounts becoming a soldier and an ensuing David and Goliath face off against Angolan armed forces in 1987 The climactic death throes of Soviet Communism during the 1980s included a last gasp attempt at strategic franchise expansion in southern Africa Channeled through Castro s Cuba oil rich Angolan armed forces FAPLA received billions of dollars of advanced weaponry and thousands of armored vehicles Their intent to eradicate the US backed Angolan opposition UNITA then push southwards into South Africa s protectorate SWA Namibia ostensibly as liberators 1985 saw the first large scale mechanized offensive in southern African history Russian Generals planned and oversaw the offensive but didn t account for the tenacity of UNITA supported by the South African Defense Forces SADF or the rainy season The 85 offensive floundered in the mud and FAPLA returned to their capital Luanda The South Africans stood down confident their covert support for UNITA had demonstrated the folly of prosecuting war so far from home against Africa s military Superpower However they were mistaken Fidel and FAPLA immediately redoubled their efforts strengthening fifteen battalions with even more Soviet hardware while Russian and Cuban specialists oversaw troop training As Cuban and Angolan fighter pilots honed their skills over the skies of Northern Angola David Mannall a normal seventeen year old kid completing high school was preparing for two years of compulsory military service before beginning Tertiary education Through a series of fateful twists he found himself leading soldiers in several full scale armored clashes including the largest and most decisive battle on African soil since World War II This is a David and Goliath story that has never been truthfully told The author reveals how Charlie Squadron comprising just twelve 90mm AFVs crewed by thirty six national servicemen as part of the elite sixty one Mechanized Battalion engaged and effectively annihilated the giant FAPLA 47th Armored Brigade in one day 3 October 1987 Their 90mm cannons were never designed as tank killers but any assurances that it would never be used against heavy armor were left in the classroom during the three month operation and never more starkly than the decisive Battle on The Lomba River The Communist backed offensive died that day along with hundreds of opposition fighters 47th Brigade survivors abandoned their remaining equipment eventually joining the 59th Brigade in what became a full scale retreat of over ten thousand soldiers to Cuito Cuanevale The myth perpetuated by post apartheid politicians goes something like this The SADF force that destroyed 47th Brigade on 3 October numbered 6 000 men and that all the hard yards were run by the long suffering UNITA The inconvenient truth is that there were just 36 South African boys on the frontline that day but it is also true to say they would never have achieved such a stunning victory without the support of many more This is their story The War for Africa Fred Bridgland,2020-01-10 A gripping story of the Angolan Civil War and how it evolved into a Cold War struggle between superpowers New York Journal of Books Lasting over a quarter of a century from 1975 to 2002 the Angolan Civil War began as a power struggle between two former liberation movements the MPLA and UNITA but became a Cold War struggle with involvement from the Soviet Union Cuba South Africa and the United States This book examines the height of the Cuban South African fighting in Angola in 1987 88 when three thousand South African soldiers and about eight thousand UNITA guerrilla fighters fought in alliance against the Cubans and the armed forces of the Marxist MPLA government a force of over fifty thousand men Fred Bridgland pieced together the course of the war fought in one of the world s most remote and wild terrains by interviewing the South Africans who fought it and many of their stories are woven into the narrative This classic account of a Cold War struggle and its momentous consequences for the participants and the continent now includes a new preface and epilogue Highlights just how much political and social considerations dictate the outcome of war A highly detailed work of military history The War for Africa can tell us a lot about the nature of counter insurgency warfare and how small states can become contested battlegrounds between superpowers New York Journal of Books Joernaal Vir Eietydse Geskiedenis ,2006 Battle on the Lomba 1987 David Mannall,2014 Let us go into action with Charlie Squadron living on the edge Ratel 90s against Russian T55 tanks few against many A captivating read with beautiful twists and turns without once losing the thread A story most profound of life in the military as told by a young South African national serviceman who served during the South African Border War David Mannall gives a vivid account of one of the fiercest mechanised battles of contemporary warfare in Africa which was fought in southeast Angola the Battle of the Lomba River on 3 October 1987 This was the battle which turned the deliberate onslaught of an overwhelming Angolan Cuban conventional coalition force at the height of the Cold War and sent the enemy reeling Our young national servicemen were warriors For dauntless service rendered by men such as 19 years old David Mannall one can only feel and express gratefulness Their combined best proved good enough Major General Retired Roland de Vries former commander of 61 Mechanised Battalion Group 1981 1982 and former deputy chief of the South African Army back cover Africa Various Authors,2013-01-11 Complete set Since 1961 the Adelphi Papers have provided some of the most informed accounts of international and strategic relations Produced by the world renowned International Institute of Strategic Studies each paper provides a short account of a subject of topical interest by a leading military figure policy maker or academic The project reprints the first forty years of papers arranged into thematic sets The collection as a whole provides a rich and insightful account of international affairs during a period which spans the second half of the Cold War the fall of the communist bloc and the emergence of a new regime with the United States as the sole superpower There is a wealth of global coverage Four volumes on east and southeast Asia as well as individual volumes on China Japan and

Korea Particular attention is given to the Middle East with volumes addressing internal sources of instability geo politics and the role of the superpowers the Israel Palestine conflict and the Iran Iraq War and the first Gulf War There is also a volume on oil and insecurity There are also two volumes on Africa the site of most of the world s wars during the period The IISS has obviously made a particular contribution to the understanding of military strategy and this is reflected with material on topics such as urban and guerrilla warfare nuclear deterrence and the role of information in modern warfare Volumes on military strategy are complemented by approaches from other disciplines such as defence economics Key selling points Early papers were only distributed by the IISS and will have achieved limited penetration of the academic market A host of major authors on a range of different subjects eg Gerald Segal on China Michael Leifer on Southeast Asia Sir Lawrence Freidman on the revolution in military affairs Raymond Vernon on multinationals and defence economics Individual volumes will have a strong appeal to different markets eg the volume on defence economics for economists various volumes for Asian Studies etc

Cross of Honour Ian S. Uys,1992 This biographical dictionary contains biographical information on soldiers awarded the South African Cross of Honour many of which were related to the wars with Angola and Namibia 32 Battalion Piet Nortje,2003 The inside story of South Africa s most controversial fighting unit of the 1970s and 1980s Originally formed in order to lend support to the FNLA and UNITA in the Angolan war 32 Battalion quickly gained the reputation of being an unconventional secretive yet highly effective group Days of the Generals Hilton Hamann,2001 An explosive behind the scenes story from the South African Generals themselves about covert operations strategic alliances and full scale war

The Buffalo Soldiers Jan Breytenbach,2002 The Heritage Foundation , The 1988 Peace Accords and the Future of South-western Africa Robert S. Jaster,1990 South Afrika is Fantastik Jannie Geldenhuys,2007 Soviet Attitudes Towards Ballistic Missile Defence and the ABM Treaty Jeanette Voas,Martin Navias,Philip A. G. Sabin,Robert S. Jaster,1990 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1985 Ratels on the Lomba Leopold Scholtz,2017-07-25 On 3 October 1987 Charlie Squadron the iron fist of 61 Mechanised Battalion Group led the way in a decisive battle on the Lomba River in southern Angola as part of the South African Defence Force s Operation Moduler Although SADF tactical doctrine dictated that the tanks of the Angolan 47 Brigade be countered with tanks the young conscripts of Charlie Squadron were forced to face their enemy in vastly inferior Ratels significantly handicapped by the vehicles thin armour and low velocity guns Not only were they facing a force far superior in terms of weaponry but they were also hugely outnumbered and had to deal with terrain so dense that their sight was severely impaired and their movement restricted Through interviews with veterans of the battle and diary entries from the time Leopold Scholtz recreates the drama of this David vs Goliath battle taking the reader straight to the heart of the action A deeply human story Ratels on the Lomba tells of how individuals react in the face of death and reveals how the war never left these men not even when they returned home

memorializes the Red Army generals of World War II at Germany's Eastern Front using formerly secret Soviet archival materials and interviews with families of the victims
