Not Only Syria? The Phenomenon of Foreign Fighters in a Comparative Perspective Kacper Rekawek, 2017-05-15 The term foreign fighters describes nationals of one state who for whatever variety of reasons and motives travel abroad to take part in a conflict in another state without the promise of financial reward The majority of attention has so far been focused on the nationals of Western European states who have gone to fight for the so called Islamic State in Syria There exist however other examples of contemporary European foreign fighters whose travails motivations and returns have been largely unnoticed and underappreciated This book attempts to balance this state of affairs by bringing to the fore some lesser known cases of non terrorist but foreign fighters related to the conflict in Ukraine and situating them against the backdrop of the larger mobilization for the war in Syria This book presents edited versions of the 12 papers presented at the NATO Advanced Research Workshop ARW Not Only Syria Foreign Fighters A Threat to NATO Allies and Their Neighbours The workshop was held in Chisinau Moldova in May 2016 and brought together researchers and experts in the field to discuss the differences similarities and parallels between different groups of foreign fighters engaged in the conflicts in Syria and the Ukraine The papers include contributions from the Netherlands Belgium Denmark and Poland among others and examine cases of foreign fighters from these and other countries The book will provide an interesting context to researchers who have up to now looked only at a single set of such fighters and will lead to tangible recommendations on how to develop policies to address the threat posed by returnees from any conflict The Content Trap

Bharat Anand,2016-10-18 My favorite book of the year Doug McMillon CEO Wal Mart Stores Harvard Business School Professor of Strategy Bharat Anand presents an incisive new approach to digital transformation that favors fostering connectivity over focusing exclusively on content NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY BLOOMBERG Companies everywhere face two major challenges today getting noticed and getting paid To confront these obstacles Bharat Anand examines a range of businesses around the world from The New York Times to The Economist from Chinese Internet giant Tencent to Scandinavian digital trailblazer Schibsted and from talent management to the future of education Drawing on these stories and on the latest research in economics strategy and marketing this refreshingly engaging book reveals important lessons smashes celebrated myths and reorients strategy Success for flourishing companies comes not from making the best content but from recognizing how content enables customers connectivity it comes not from protecting the value of content at all costs but from unearthing related opportunities close by and it comes not from mimicking competitors best practices but from seeing choices as part of a connected whole Digital change means that everyone today can reach and interact with others directly We are all in the content business But that comes with risks that Bharat Anand teaches us how to recognize and navigate Filled with conversations with key players and in depth dispatches from the front lines of digital change The Content Trap is an essential new playbook for navigating the turbulent waters in which we find ourselves Praise for The Content Trap A masterful and thought provoking book that has reshaped my understanding of content in the digital landscape Ariel Emanuel co CEO WME IMG The Content Trap is a book filled with stories of businesses from music companies to magazine publishers that missed connections and could never escape the narrow views that had brought them past success But it is also filled with stories of those who made strategic choices to strengthen the links between content and returns in their new master plans The book is a call to clear thinking and reassessing why things are the way they are The Wall Street Journal Mona Hatoum Christine van Assche,Clarrie Wallis,2016-09-13 Born in Beirut to a Palestinian family artist Mona Hatoum came to Britain as a student in the mid 1970s settling in London in 1975 Her art whether video performance sculpture or installation is concerned with confrontational themes including violence oppression and voyeurism often in reference to the human body and with the juxtaposition of opposites such as beauty and horror desire and revulsion With 250 colour images covering the whole of Hatoum s oeuvre this is the essential book on a distinctly powerful voice in contemporary art The North Carolina Historical Review ,2018 Alphabetical index of patentees and applicants for patents of invention, by B.
