Women in the Church of God in Christ Anthea Butler, 2012-01-01 The Church of God in Christ COGIC an African American Pentecostal denomination founded in 1896 has become the largest Pentecostal denomination in the United States today In this first major study of the church Anthea Butler examines the religious and social lives of the women in the COGIC Women s Department from its founding in 1911 through the mid 1960s She finds that the sanctification or spiritual purity that these women sought earned them social power both in the church and in the black community Offering rich lively accounts of the activities of the Women s Department founders and other members Butler shows that the COGIC women of the early decades were able to challenge gender roles and to transcend the limited responsibilities that otherwise would have been assigned to them both by churchmen and by white dominated society The Great Depression World War II and the civil rights movement brought increased social and political involvement and the Women s Department worked to make the sanctified world of the church interact with the broader American society More than just a community of church mothers says Butler COGIC women utilized their spiritual authority power and agency to further their contestation and negotiation of gender roles in the church and beyond Research Anthology on Challenges for Women in Leadership Roles

The Elder Training Handbook Carey Green,2012-04-03 Identifying and equipping men for the role of church Elder is not an easy task The role of Elder is perhaps one of the most important roles in the world since the church is both the body and bride of Jesus That means church leaders need more than surface opinions about the men who might possibly fit the role of Elder They need a way to evaluate and train those candidates This workbook style handbook is designed to help church leaders do just that in a wise careful and thoroughly Biblical way Some contexts where this handbook may be helpful When an existing Elder team needs to bring others onto their team When a Pastor needs to establish an Elder team from scratch When an Elder team needs a refresher about their role or would like additional training regarding the Biblical mandate for Elders As a discipleship curriculum for men where the role of Elder is held up as a model for how they can lead their families with the heart of a shepherd This handbook is not offered as a magic formula or fool proof method for finding or equipping men for the role of Elder No such thing exists Scripture clearly teaches that men are only appointed to the role of Elder by the determination of the Holy Spirit Acts 20 28 Instead this handbook is designed to serve as a tool in that Spirit led process It is an aid in discerning the will of the Spirit first through assessment of the man being considered and secondly through training for those who appear to be called to serve as Elders With over 260 study questions a variety of self assessment tools scripture memorization and quizzes to test the candidate s understanding and application of the concepts included The Elder Training Handbook is a serious minded tool for discovering encouraging and equipping men to shepherd protect and lead the New Testament church Who's Who Among African Americans , Selecting Elders Dave Deets,2017-05-02 Charles Spurgeon stated To compromise on leadership is the most suicidal act a church can commit All across the world churches are forced to answer the question Who should be in leadership As churches wrestle with this question pragmatism often takes over Too many times the church simply puts men into positions of leadership as elders because they will do Dave Deets D Min Northland International University has taken a local church through the elder selection process and he has captured what happens when a church does not have a biblical selection process Dave then takes the reader through a complete yet easy to understand process for selecting elders This is a proven process and one that could easily be implemented in your church
