- 5 Imagine your publishing venture as a vast interconnected structure akin to the Great Wall You the author entrepreneur are the emperor overseeing the construction and maintenance of this grand edifice Your parent company is the imperial court the central authority from which all decisions and resources flow
- 7 Each watchtower along your publishing wall represents a subsidiary or role you must manage The Author s Tower This is where creativity flourishes and your literary works are crafted The Editor s Fortress A stronghold of quality control ensuring your content is polished and refined The Designer s Pavilion Where your book s visual identity takes shape from cover art to interior layout The Marketer s Beacon A signal fire that attracts
