Byng of Vimy Jeffery Williams,1992-05-01 Field Marshal the Viscount Byng of Vimy did not fit into the conventional mould in the Army as Governor General of Canada or as Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police Few officers commanded more widespread affection from their troops or knew them and treated them with such respect as he did Beginning with dramatic reforms in dress and living conditions in his own regiment the 10th Royal Hussars Byng consistently watched over the welfare of his men Following the desperate Ypres battles of 1914 15 he was sent to Gallipoli to revive a failing enterprise but instead in the face of Kitchener's and Churchill's opposition he called for it to be abandoned He then planned one of the most successful withdrawals in the history of war Ever seeking ways to win Byng led the Canadian Corps to the capture of Vimy Ridge and the Third Army in the first major tank battle at Cambrai and in 1918 he commanded the largest of Britain's field armies in the final victory campaign As Governor General of Canada he became almost a Canadian nationalist and worked for the unity of the widespread provinces He advocated the adoption of a Canadian flag and abandonment of the word Empire His conception of the role of the Crown in the constitutional crisis of 1926 has led to its position in the Commonwealth today Finally at the age of 66 and fighting a wasting illness he was summoned to reform the Metropolitan Police which in a remarkably short time he brought into the 20th century This reissued biography won the Governor General's Prize in Canada when it was first published
