The Biologics License Application for ALPROLIX has been transferred from Biogen to Bioverativ and, while most changes are aesthetic in nature (eg, new corporate logos and colors), NDC numbers are affected by the transfer. Updated NDCs will be released on a rolling schedule throughout 2018 and Bioverativ will communicate these changes prior to each release. ICD-10 codes, J-codes, and CPT codes remain the same.

This guide provides the correct codes to help you with accurate billing and coding for reimbursement during this transition.
