Diasporic Feminist Theology Asia And Theopolitical Imagination:

Diasporic Feminist Theology Namsoon Kang, 2014 How do we navigate the question of identity in the fluid and pluralist conditions of postmodern society Even more how do we articulate identity as a defining particularity in the disappearance of borders boundaries and spaces in an increasingly globalist world What constitutes identity and the formation of narratives under such conditions How do these issues affect not only discursive practices but theological and ethical construction and practice This volumes explores these issues in depth Diasporic Feminist Theology attempts to construct feminist theology by adopting diaspora as a theopolitical and ethical metaphor Namsoon Kang here revisits and reexamines today s significant issues such as identity politics dislocation postmodernism postcolonialism neo empire Asian values and constructs diasporic transethnic and glocal feminist theological discourses that create spaces of transformation reconciliation hospitality worldliness solidarity and border traversing This work draws on diverse sources from contemporary critical discourses of diaspora studies cultural studies ethnic studies postmodernism postcolonialism and feminism and feminist theology from a transterritorial space This book is a landmark work providing a comprehensive discourse for feminist theology today

Postcolonial Theologies Stefan Silber, 2024-08-23 Postcolonial and decolonial studies are generating more and more interest In the last two decades a diverse reception of these critical ways of thinking has developed worldwide including in theology This textbook aims at providing a fundamental insight into this diverse movement that is discussed globally In recent years various attempts have developed in different contexts and language areas around the world to make the learning progress of postcolonial studies fruitful for theology This introduction takes up many of these examples and organizes them according to a structure based on central terms and methods of postcolonial studies Numerous examples literature references and featured authors encourage readers to delve deeper into individual subject areas and or authors Finally the book is also dedicated to possible consequences for theology and the church in Western contexts

Christianity Across Borders Gemma Tulud Cruz, 2021-07-29 This book offers a comprehensive exploration of key issues in contemporary global migration and considers the theological implications for Christianity in general and for Christian faith and practice in various parts of the world in particular Migrant Christians who make up the majority of believers on the move and in diaspora play an increasingly vital role in world Christianity today Drawing on cases from across the globe Gemma Tulud Cruz considers how Christians are faced with immense gifts and tremendous challenges brought by the ever increasing presence of migrants in their midst and the conditions that characterize contemporary global migration Migrant Christians themselves face multiple challenges which have been made more stark by the coronavirus pandemic The volume will be relevant to scholars of religion and of migration who are interested in a closer examination of what happens to Christians and Christianity faith communities and nation states in the age of migration

The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church Andrew Louth, 2022-02-17 Uniquely authoritative and wide ranging in its scope The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church is the indispensable reference work on all aspects of the Christian Church. It contains over 6 500 cross referenced A-Z entries and offers unrivalled coverage of all aspects of this vast and often complex subject from theology churches and denominations patristic scholarship and the bible to the church calendar and its organization popes archbishops other church leaders saints and mystics. In this new edition great efforts have been made to increase and strengthen coverage of non Anglican denominations for example non Western European Christianity as well as broadening the focus on Christianity and the history of churches in areas beyond Western Europe. In particular there have been extensive additions with regards to the Christian Church in Asia Africa Latin America North America and Australasia. Significant updates have also been included on topics such as liturgy Canon Law recent international developments non Anglican missionary activity and the increasingly important area of moral and pastoral theology among many others. Since its first appearance in 1957 the ODCC has established itself as an essential resource for ordinands clergy and members of religious orders and an invaluable tool for academics teachers and students of church history and theology as well as for the general reader.

In Counterpoint

Kristine Suna-Koro, 2017-05-01 What does postcoloniality have to do with sacramentality? How do diasporic lives and imaginaries shape the course of postcolonial sacramental theology? Neither postcolonial theorists nor sacramental theologians have hitherto sought to engage in a sustained dialogue with one another. In this trailblazing volume Kristine Suna Koro brings postcolonialism diaspora discourse and Christian sacramental theology into a mutually critical and constructive transdisciplinary conversation. Dialoguing with thinkers as diverse as Edward Said and Gayatri Spivak as well as Francis D Sa S J Martin Luther Mayra Rivera and John Chryssavgis the author offers a postcolonial retrieval of sacramentality through a robust theological engagement with the postcolonial notions of hybridity contrapuntality planetarity and Third Space. While exploring the methodological potential of diasporic imaginary in theology this innovative book advances the notion of sacramental pluriverse and of Christ as its paradigmatic crescendo within the sacramental economy of creation and redemptive transformation. In the context of ecological degradation In Counterpoint argues that it is vital for the postcolonial sacramental renewal to be rooted in ethics as a uniquely postcolonial fundamental theology.

Women in World

Christianity Gina A. Zurlo, 2023-08-07 A groundbreaking comprehensive and interdisciplinary analysis of women's experiences in World Christianity. Women in World Christianity: Building and Sustaining a Global Movement is the first textbook to focus on women's experiences in the founding spread and continuation of the Christian faith. Integrating historical theological and social scientific approaches to World Christianity this innovative volume centers women's perspectives to illustrate their key role in Christianity becoming a world religion including how they sustain the faith in the present and their expanding role in the future. Women in World Christianity features findings from the Women in World Christianity Project a groundbreaking study that produced the first quantitative dataset on gender in every Christian denomination in every country of the world. Throughout the text special emphasis is placed on women in the twentieth and twenty first centuries the period of Christianity's shift from the global North to the global South Easily accessible chapters organized by continent tradition and select topics introduce students to the wide variety of Christian belief and practice around the world The book also discusses issues specifically relevant to women in the church gender based violence ecology theological education peacebuilding and more This textbook Provides a balanced view of women's involvement in Christianity as a world religion and how they sustain the faith today Introduces students to female theologians around the world whose scholarship is generally overlooked in Western theological education Discusses women's essential contributions to Christian mission leadership education relief work healthcare and other social services of the church Complements the growing body of literature about Christian women from different continental regional national and ecclesiastical perspectives Explores the contributions of contemporary Christian women of all major denominations in Africa Asia Europe Latin America North America and Oceania Helps students become more aware of the unique challenges women face worldwide and what they are doing to overcome them

Women in World Christianity Building and Sustaining a Global Movement is an excellent primary textbook for introductory courses on World Christianity History of Christianity World Religions Gender in Religion as well as undergraduate and graduate courses specifically focused on women in World Christianity
