Diasporic Feminist Theology Asia And Thopolitical Imagination:

Diasporic Feminist Theology Namsoon Kang, 2014 How do we navigate the question of identity in the fluid and pluralist conditions of postmodern society Even more how do we articulate identity as a defining particularity in the disappearance of borders boundaries and spaces in an increasingly globalist world What constitutes identity and the formation of narratives under such conditions How do these issues affect not only discursive practices but theological and ethical construction and practice This volume explores these issues in depth Diasporic Feminist Theology attempts to construct feminist theology by adopting diaspora as a theopolitical and ethical metaphor Namsoon Kang here revisits and reexamines today's significant issues such as identity politics dislocation postmodernism postcolonialism neo empire Asian values and constructs diasporic transethnic and glocal feminist theological discourses that create spaces of transformation reconciliation hospitality worldliness solidarity and border traversing This work draws on diverse sources from contemporary critical discourses of diaspora studies cultural studies ethnic studies postmodernism postcolonialism and feminism and feminist theology from a transterritorial space This book is a landmark work providing a comprehensive discourse for feminist theology today

Postcolonial Imagination and Feminist Theology Pui-lan Kwok, 2005-01-01 The burgeoning field of postcolonial studies argues that most theology has been formed in dominant cultures laden intrinsically with imperializing structures An essential task facing theology is thus to decolonize the mind and free Christianity from colonizing bias and structures Here in this truly groundbreaking study highly respected feminist theologian Kwok Pui lan offers the first full length theological treatment of what it means to do postcolonial feminist theology She explains her methodological basis and explores several specific topics including Christology pluralism and creation

A Transpacific Imagination of Theology, Ethics, and Spiritual Activism Keun-joo Christine Pae, 2023-11-23 Despite prolific feminist voices in Christian ethics transnational perspectives are still underdeveloped Similarly secular transnational feminist scholarship often overlooks religious faith rituals and spirituality crucial to many women's liberation movements across the globe This book aims to fill these gaps in Christian and secular feminist scholarships by constructing a transnational feminist theo ethics Furthermore by bringing the theological and the transnational together the book offers an alternative tool in analyzing social identities beyond intersectionality i.e. interstitial approach and interstitial integrity and thus renews feminist theological understandings especially of time memories and healing beyond linear approaches A renewed analytical tool would help the readers critically reinterrogate the global power structure buttressed by empire militarized capitalism and heteropatriarchal religious ideologies at the cost of raced sexed and classed bodies At the same time the book would create space where readers create and recreate theo ethical visions for global peace and justice constructed upon transnational feminist praxis of solidarity and spiritual activism Case studies offer concrete sites to inform readers about how to use transnational feminist theories at a micro and macropolitical levels and produce transnational feminist knowledge of God spiritual activism and solidarity This book is written for graduate and advanced undergraduate students in religion gender studies and Asian American studies to critically engage in the political the theological and the spiritual from transnational perspectives not as observers but as active participants in global politics Postcolonial Imagination and Feminist Theology Pui-lan Kwok,2005

Introducing Asian Feminist Theology Kwok Pui-lan,2000-07-01 Asian women comprise more than a quarter of the world s population and the forms in which they express feminist theology are many and varied extending through grassroots movements theological networks ecumenical conferences and journals Those involved in the process include community organizers theological students church leaders and social activists among whom even the concept feminism assumes many definitions and substitutes Kwok Pui lan s introduction to this huge subject begins with a survey of the social political and cultural contexts of Asian women s experiences and then traces the emergence of feminist consciousness and the organization of women s networks She describes the resources of Asian feminist theology and the appropriation of Asian religious traditions and considers the reconstructions of the concept of God in inclusive categories Finally she summarizes Asian women s critique of the patriarchal church and outlines the search for a new spirituality that express women s embodiedness and sexuality Hope Abundant Pui-lan Kwok,2010 In 1988 Virginia Fabella from the Philippines and Mercy Amba Oduyoye from Ghana coedited With Passion and Compassion Third world Women Doing Theology based on the work of the Women s Commission of the Ecumenical Association of Third World Theologians EATWOT The book has been widely used as an important resource for understanding women s liberation theologies in Africa Asia and Latin America emerging out of women s struggles for justice in church and society More than twenty years have passed and it is time to bring out a new collection of essays to signal newer developments and to include emerging voices Divided into four parts Context and Theology Scripture Christology and Body Sexuality and Spirituality these carefully selected essays paint a vivid picture of theological developments among indigenous women and other women living in the global South who face poverty violence and war and yet find abundant hope through their faith Compassionate and Free Marianne Katoppo,2000-08-23 This book explores the challenge of being a Christian woman in Asia Katoppo explains why Asian Christian women like herself seek the right to be different to be the Other rather than having to accept identities borrowed from men and other cultures

Interdependence HyeRan Kim-Cragg,2018-05-31 This book calls attention to an urgent need for postcolonial feminist approaches to practical theology It not only advocates for the inclusion of colonialism as a critical optic for practical theology but also demands a close look at how colonialism is entangled with issues of race ethnicity gender class disability and sexual orientation Seeking to highlight the importance of the interdependence of life the author challenges and contests the notion of independence as the desirable goal of the human being Lifting up the experiences of overlooked groups including children at adult centered worship queer and interracial youth in heterosexual and white normative family discourse and non human species in human centered academic and theological realms the book contributes to expanding the concerns of practical theology in ways that create healthy community for all human beings and non human fellow creatures It also takes up issues of multiple religious belonging and migration that practical theology has not sufficiently explored These illuminating new possibilities promise to renew and even transform church communities through the inclusion of often neglected groups with whom God is already present

We Dare to Dream Virginia Fabella, Sun Ai Lee Park, 2015-02-10 The phenomenon of Asian women doing theology is recent Christian women in Asia increasingly insist that unless their distinctive voices as Asians and as women are heard the emerging theologies cannot be liberating relevant or complete Bringing together writings of women from the Philippines India Taiwan Hong Kong Malaysia Korea and Singapore We Dare to Dream first reworks some basic theological themes of Christology ecclesiology and the Holy Spirit from an Asian feminist perspective Part II explores the realities of the Asian context through issues of peace politics sexuality and culture Part III presents and explicates what doing theology as Asian women means These writings are vital to theology throughout the world today Not only do their authors take their own history and context seriously but they relate their experience to the experience of women throughout the world forging common bonds and venturing toward a world of justice and reciprocity As the editors state Unless our thoughts as women are known and our voices heard the work toward rearticulating Christian theology in Asia will remain truncated God's face will be only half seen and God's voice only half heard

Off the Menu Rita Nakashima Brock, 2007-01-01 Asian American Christianity is one of the fastest growing forms of American Christianity and it has already proven to be one of the richest and most innovative movements in North American religion With a deep understanding of their roots in classic Christianity as well as the diversity of Asian culture these theological voices have contributed some of the freshest and most provocative work of recent decades This volume brings together women who are searching for authentic Christian dialogue in a world of hybridity and changing context and it represents one of the most significant areas of growth and vitality in contemporary Christianity

Struggle to Be the Sun Again: Introducing Asian Women's Theology Chung Hyun Kyung, 1990

The Jesus of Asian Women Muriel Orevillo-Montenegro, 2006 This critical survey of Asian christologies focuses on the need to recognize and end the oppressed condition of Asian women Orevillo Montenegro shows how the christologies brought to Asia by Western missionaries failed to take into account the reality of Asia with its great diversity of cultures and traditional religions

Embodying Antiracist Christianity Keun-joo Christine Pae, Boyung Lee, 2023-12-21 At a moment of notably rising levels of anti Asian hate this book offers antiracist resources informed by Asian North American feminist theology and biblical scholarship Although there exist scholarly books and articles on Asian American theology broadly defined have proliferated in response to the current ethical political and cultural environment have been prolific there have been few concerted efforts to interrogate or dismantle anti Asian racism inseparable from anti black racism and white settler colonialism that have often undermined the communal spirit and livelihood of Christian churches in the current political climate In the current political climate COVID related anti Asian hate and racial conflict which all intersect with gender and sexuality based violence require theological moral and political inquiries Hence this book notes the current paucity of work with critical discussions on the multiple facets of racism from Asian American feminist theological perspectives Contributors deepen the inter transdisciplinary approaches concerning how to dismantle racist theological teachings biblical interpretations liturgical presentations and the Christian church s leadership structure Feminist Theology from the Third World Ursula King,2015-02-12 This major new collection of readings demonstrates the range and vitality of feminist theology and its increasing influence on Christian women and men throughout the world Here are thirty eight key texts representing the voices of women in Africa Asia and Latin America as well as those working among minorities in places such as Israel the US and the Pacific The readings are grouped under five headings Doing Theology from Third World Women s Perspective Women s Oppression and Cries of Pain The Bible as a Source of Empowerment for Women Challenging Traditional Theological Thinking A Newly Emerging Spirituality All texts are placed in context by brief introductory comments while the main introduction to the whole book provides a helpful overview of the major issues and developments in Christian feminist thinking throughout the Third World and beyond Among the contributors are Chung Hyun Kyung Korea Ivone Gebara Brazil Kwok Pui lan Hong Kong Mercy Amba Oduyoye Ghana Delores S Williams USA Body and Sexuality Ecclesia of Women in Asia. Biennial Conference,Agnes M. Brazal,Andrea Lizares Si,2007 This collection of essays is a fruit of the 2004 conference of the ecclesia of Women in Asia EWA a forum of Catholic women doing theology in Asia P 4 of cover

Asian Feminist Biblical Studies : Perspectives and Methods Maggie Low,2023-10-12 Groundbreaking and inspiring this book offers a comprehensive and up to date overview of Asian feminist biblical criticism It is a gift to the Asian churches and to the theological community I highly recommend it to all who search for biblical insights to empower women and men to work for justice Kwok Pui lan Dean s Professor of Systematic Theology at Candler School of Theology Emory University This is a superb collection of the different approaches of feminist biblical scholars in Asia I found it invigorating and thought provoking to learn about the multiple ways in which Asian feminists made their exodus from Western biblical studies to interpret this foundational text in their own unique contexts Gale A Yee Nancy W King Professor of Biblical Studies Emerita Episcopal Divinity School This collection of essays by mostly younger Asian biblical scholars is a welcome addition to a small but growing body of Asian feminist studies The diversity of perspectives methodologies and creative interpretations makes it an ideal introductory text for anyone wishing to learn more about Asian feminism Simon Chan Editor Asia Journal of Theology

ISG 50: Asian Theology on the Way Peniel Rajkumar,2013-04-05 This book provides an introduction to theological thought on the Asian continent It is ecumenical in scope with emphasis on the contemporary concerns within Asian theology and some attention to the development of these theologies Regional and subject specialists will capture the ongoing conversation on Asian theology incorporating new emphases thrusts and trends thus making the book a fresh and engaging introduction to Christian theology in Asia We Dare to Dream Virginia Fabella (suora.),Sun Ai Lee Park,1989 Other

Many authors and publishers also upload their work to specific websites, granting readers access to their content without any charge. These platforms not only provide access to existing literature but also serve as an excellent platform for undiscovered authors to share their work with the world. However, it is essential to be cautious while downloading Diasporic Feminist Theology Asia And Thopolitical Imagination. Some websites may offer pirated or illegally obtained copies of copyrighted material. Engaging in such activities not only violates copyright laws but also undermines the efforts of authors, publishers, and researchers. To ensure ethical downloading, it is advisable to utilize reputable websites that prioritize the legal distribution of content. When downloading Diasporic Feminist Theology Asia And Thopolitical Imagination, users should also consider the potential security risks associated with online platforms. Malicious actors may exploit vulnerabilities in unprotected websites to distribute malware or steal personal information. To protect themselves, individuals should ensure their devices have reliable antivirus software installed and validate the legitimacy of the websites they are downloading from. In conclusion, the ability to download Diasporic Feminist Theology Asia And Thopolitical Imagination has transformed the way we access information. With the convenience, cost-effectiveness, and accessibility it offers, free PDF downloads have become a popular choice for students, researchers, and book lovers worldwide. However, it is crucial to engage in ethical downloading practices and prioritize personal security when utilizing online platforms. By doing so, individuals can make the most of the vast array of free PDF resources available and embark on a journey of continuous learning and intellectual growth.
